1 Hikime - FWO Started

1 Hikime – FWO Started

[Hey.. hey.. Yu-san hey...!!] (Taku)

[Hmm... what is this suddenly? I have bad feeling about it...] (Yu)

Lunch break time, my friend who sit next to me suddenly stuck his face to mine so I punch him. It's really gross please don't get closer to me. Iyaa... really gross, five times grosser than usual.

[Hey.. hey.. do you know FWO?] (Taku)

[I know... lately it's on the news] (Yu)

I draw back my face with full force, it's still feel gross please stay away from me.

What do you know about VRMMO? It's abbreviation for virtual reality massive multi-player online. Such long-winded name, but it's not what I want to talk about. The point is with this we can enter the game world. We can touch, smell, and see everything like the real world. It's a door to enter different world, or so my little sister says.

Anyway a new game and the latest machine game will be released today. That's FWO, first full-scale VRMMO action fantasy game. This is fantasy world where sword and magic exist. Hunting monster, adventuring, open shop, or created field, world of freedom. And then in front of me is my best friends with monstrous luck to win lottery for the right as beta tester for FWO. And today the game has officially released, but you have to stand 5 days prior in front of the shop to get the first copy.

[Although it was something for chills moment... ] (Taku)

[Is this just my imagination that you are bragging about FWO? ...So? What do you want?] (Yu)

[What? I don't have time to listen your joke!!] (Yu)

[Houu... then let's starts with you ears~~] (Taku)

[Stop it!! Don't get closer to me!!] (Yu)

Finally this guy stop fooling around and take a seat in front of me

[So..? What about FWO?] (Yu)

I will just ride the talk while resuming my launch that has been suspended. I'm also interested with the thing about FWO.

[Ok lest continue the story, mfufufu.... you want to know? You must be want to know? right? right?] (Taku)

I look at his face... grosss!!!

[Gross...] (Yu)

[Ouch, a citical hit] (Taku)

[Opss.. sorry! My bad, so what do you want?] (Yu)

[If you really feels sorry then prove it with your body!?

Don't worry only 30% is joke!] (Taku)

[It's less than half, well... set the joke aside hurry up just tell me] (Yu)

Then he get closer to to me. Please don't bring your face too close, it's gross.

[Do you want to play FWO?] (Taku)

[You got me there... But you know, even I go to game shop now and lined-up all night for 5 days is too late. So is that all you want to talk?] (Yu)

And I look back to his face, he now puts a serious face. Iyaaa... I really think is gro... never mind!!

I finished my lunch and started to listen seriously. Summary as benefit of beta tester you can get extra copy when the game released. And then Taku give me FWO software that he received.

When the school end I'm going straight to home. . . while running.

What a good guy my best friend, giving me such amazing present. But now I think about it again, maybe he can't make any friend in the game so he give me this? At least I will become his friend in the game as well. Let's do so.

Waiting the game service starts at 6 pm...

Is about to begin...

[Dive in!]

*****

When I opened my eyes I was in the white room, in front of me there is a large mirror just as Taku told. This place is character edit room. Room to decide your character setting, such as name, appearance, and occupation.

Although there is no significant changed in my appearance, at best to change is the length and color of the hair. I can't change physique size or gender. Well that's no problem, there will be no inconvenience when I return to real world. I keep my black hair, and is all good.

To be frank I want to just using default setting character, but Taku told me to make my appearance different from real life as much as possible. But it's doesn't apply to the name, Taku also using his real name to avoid forgetting character name.

Next, decide race. Human, elf, dwarf, I don't know what's the differences so I choose human. Maybe this is will be a big miss ??

Finally profession, it seems not much option available. There are fighter, magic user, crafter. I heard there are some unusual profession but there is no explanation. You can choose various jobs from related profession. But it doesn't mean you can't learn skill that doesn't belong to your profession. You can use skill bonus for this. Of course because this world where magic exists so I choose magic related profession. I pressed OK after select occupation that caught my eyes from the bottom list.

Now the initial configuration is completed.

Let's meet up with Taku in the fountain that located in the middle of the started town. There will be no mistake because he was said that it should be visible even from the login point.

Let's go to the game world !!

+ + + + +

2 Hikime – Appraisal

2 Hikime – Appraisal

Amazing...

Honestly I underestimate it, immediately after the services of large-scale VRMMO starts this place is packed. Wherever I look there is person, person, and person wearing the same initial equipments. Moreover my view is dyed with green from the player marker when you look at the top. This crowd is so realistic and made me hard to breathe.

[Yu.. give me your hand!?] (Taku)

[Hmm...?] (Yu)

The moment I was almost swallowed up in despair, a voice slipped to my ear. It was Taku. I stretched my hand, and he firmly grabbed my hands while jumping over the crowd of poeple's head to sparse alley.

I was dropped...

[Ouch... can you be little gentle?] (Yu)

[At best my Hover Boots only can fly for 10 seconds] (Taku)

«Player name : Taku sent you friend request – Yes/No?»

«Player name : Taku invite you to party – Yes/No?»

When I raised my head, what entered into my field of vision is an effeminate face. I'm still half convinced but he still gave the same impression (Gross!!), I know that person is Taku. Because the hair is remained black he is not change so much. Taku inside the game is someone you can called a beautiful guy (Bishounen). I know it because some poeple also call me that.

Anyway I accepted the invitation.

Again, I looking at Taku equipment. Apart from my cheap-looking beginner clothes, Taku armor is trully iron-ish, a shining dull-silver armor. Furthermore his leg equipment, that was very pretty and rare red shoes. It's grows wings from the both sides. I want it, that good looking shoes and armor. I must admit it!

«Skills : Appraisal skill has level-up»

Ouu... large amount of pop-up window came out. And somehow my skill leveled-up.

When I was looking at Taku equipment, the system activated appraisal skill without permission and arbitrary leveled-up.

System-san is nicee...

Unfortunately I don't understand whether this equipment is strong. The rarity of Hover Boot is higher than the others but I can't see it clearly. How nice... I want it!

[Hey Taku, when I was looking at your equipment the appraisal skill is level-up.. what is this?] (Yu)

[ . . . . . ] (Taku)

[Hmm..?] (Yu)

Somehow he staring at my face... gross!!

[Hey Taku what's the matter?] (Yu)

[Ooiii. Taku-san did you find Onii-chan!?] (Sylph)

A girl's voice coming interrupted us. This voice sounds pretty familiar to me though.

[Oh that voice... Tsubasa?] (Yu)

[Yup! Onii-chan] (Sylph)

A girl rushed here, her appereance very similiar to my sister I know.

[Ouu... Although I was thinking whether I can find him ot not, but it was unnecessary] (Taku)

[O..nii-chan? Is that really you? Eh.. why?] (Sylph)

[What is "why"?] (Yu)

[Why you have become a girl?] (Sylph)

[How rude...] (Yu)

We both know in FWO we are unable to select gender, what is this idiot saying.
...

[Onii-chan, did you become Onee-chan?] (Sylph)

[That's not funny!!] (Yu)

[No no no. . . . however you look at it, this is a female avatar. Have you see your face in the mirror since came here?] (Sylph)

[I made this while looking at mirror though] (Yu)

Geez... I don't have time for that, you are both are the strange ones so can you stop it already.

[Even you told me to look at mirror, I don't have such thing. Or rather I never see such item] (Yu)

[Ahh that right, but you see. . . for example you can use water fountain, or using water magic might also works] (Sylph)

[Well I don't know how to use magic] (Yu)

[Ah. . . I see] (Sylph)

[Oh well I will help you Onii-chan] (Sylph)

[Ooh. . . there is that way huh] (Taku)

The conversation advanced and left me behind. Someone please explained me the situation.

«Player name : Sylph sent you friend request – Yes/No?»

Request accepted, now she is in my friendlist. So what kind of face that make people around me make a big fuss about it.

[Yosh! Taken...] (Sylph)

«You received mail from your friend. Do you want to check it now – Yes/No?»

[Hurry up! Look.. Look.. Onii-chan. No matter how you look at it because it is my sister. But rather because it is my sister] (Sylph)

[No, I don't understand what are you talking about] (Yu)

There when I opened the photo that attached in the e-mail...

A man(?) with height about 150 cm, is quite petite. Bright pupil such as large obsidian that likely about to be spilled from double eyelids, in the contrast he(?) has a small nose. The shiny long black hair that reaches to the waist. That's how I look like now.

[As I thought, it's girl] (Sylph)

[No no no. . . you must be kidding me] (Yu)

It's seem I can't deny it.

[Haa... setting that aside can you teach me how to fight inside game. Everything from your beta test experinces. I must admit don't know anything] (Yu)

[What do you mean setting that aside? Well whatever, I think that's important too. I want to explore the town first but it's crowded now, so let's fight monster] (Sylph)

[Immediately? Is nice... let's do it] (Yu)

[So let's head outside the town, the gates is over there. Right? Onee-chan~~ ♪ Mufufufu] (Sylph)

[Don't call me Onee-chan!!] (Yu)

Sylph walked and take my hand against my will. She wears light green fairy-like costume, a sparkling translucent wings extending from the back. I can see a pointed ear from the gap of her blonde hair. An Elf characteristic, I think.

[First Taku and now you as well, your equipment are too strong. Are you from beta too? That's cheat] (Yu)

Sylph wearing a really cute fairy equipment sets. I hate it, no I envious.

[This is beta advantage. I used half of my money for equipment in beta testing. I still havea my rare equipments but my level is back to 1. But for new players maybe this is like cheat.] (Sylph)

[With this I can easily kill you Onee-chan ] (Sylph)

[Maa.. I'm just started let's give up] (Yu)

[Muu...] (Sylph)

[And one more, we don't care but the other player maybe do. Because it's bad manner to appraising equipment without permission especially for woman. So becareful] (Taku)

[Yes] (Yu)

I'm not satisfied but I can't do anything about it now. I promised to myself someday I will wear equipment that can make me proud and make other players envious.

3 Hikime – Summoner Begin

3 Hikime – Summoner Begin

[We have leave the town. . . but how I can take out a weapon for fighting ?]
(Yu)

Taku and Sylph took out a long sword and rapier from a void then swing it. I followed suit and take out my weapon, it's a Book.

[Oh. It came out perfectly] (Yu)

In FWO you can make a weapon and armor appears but only for those you have equipped. It seemed there was people who a complaint about the two handed sword that was too heavy for someone to carry it around all the time so this service was added to the system. It's also works in reverse, you can make the weapon disappear so no one objected it. But my weapon doesn't make any sense.

[So let's get going- -] (Taku)

[- - - No no no wait a minute!] (Yu)

[Hmm?] (Taku)

[Don't "Hmm?" me! What is this book?

The initial equipment for magic user is supposed to be wand isn't?
Am I not a magic user?] (Yu)

[Eh? But you wore an adventure robe] (Sylph)

[So the Book. . . what job is it?] (Yu)

[ [ ? ] ] (Taku & Sylph)

For the first time I'm being appraised, hmm. . . I have a bad feeling about it.

The results was my job is Summoner.

[I was wondering what my profession is, but. . . but could it be Summoner is weak? ] (Yu)

[No, there is no weak or strong job in FWO] (Taku)

Why does Taku have to yell. . . .

[Summoner it's a collector-type job] (Sylph)

Sylph explained that a summoner defeats monsters and then seals them in the book. You can then summon the monsters that you have sealed. It's a causative profession.

She says you need a certain number of them before you can summon the sealed monster and it's increased for stronger monsters.

She says you can't get a dropped item from a monster that you haven't sealed yet.

She says the summoned monsters usually become regular party members for the summoner. Maximum number for party is six poeple and summoner can summons up to 5 monsters. Of course after summoning five monsters you can't add other players to your party.

She says to complety seal one monster you need to defeat at least 5 monster of the same kind. So to make a full party with summoned monsters you need to defeats 25 monster. Somehow it's troublesome. . .

It's says summoners have a good weapon (monster?), it is better than a sword or cane that is hard to get from a treasure chest or boss drops item.

She says in FWO to acquired skill you need to use SP or Skill Points. The consumption is varied for each profession, and summoner has generally high consumption but the effects is lower than other profession.

[Do you know Onee-chan, Summoners can't get drops item from the unsealed monster which is income for combat personnel. And in order to maximize the summoner ability they need to be teamed with monster. So almost no player is teamed with summoner. Summoner itself is weaker version of magic user. Hmm... it's will difficult before you can summon five monster, there is also less drops item, in other word...] (Sylph)

[In other word. . . ?] (Yu)

[Can I played with the fluffy-fluffy monster later on?] (Sylph)

[What was with the conclusion?] (Taku)

Taku is noisy. . . .

[Oh it's not like that. . . I just want to help you. . . don't be mistaken okay. . . it's not like I have ulterior motive or anything like that.] (Sylph)

[Sudden Tsundere. . . don't try to drag me ok!!] (Taku)

[Taku you are noisy] (Sylph)

[Goffuu...!!! suddenly hit my belly without reason] (Taku)

No motion from Taku who took critical hit punch with his belly Hmm. . . are you okay?

[Hey. . . Sylph!] (Yu)

[It's okay because the pain is turned off by System] (Sylph)

[So that is just Taku's imagination!?] (Yu)

[Maybe just a little. . .] (Sylph)

[Taku are you okay? Don't die okay?] (Yu)

[Oh it was painful. I thought will die] (Taku)

[Are you alright now?] (Yu)

[That will not last long unless poison or continuation damage. Well that aside we will help you hunting. With our equipment, enemies around here are not a big deal] (Sylph)

[It is infuriating but anything for survive] (Yu)

[You don't need to say it] (Taku)

Finally a long-awaited first combat, however...

[Ha ha ha ha ho ho ho] [Hey ha ha ha ho ho ho]

[Giyugi llllllllll ]

The rabbit that Taku found was killed with single blow, though it was a cute bunny.

[Poor thing. . . ] (Yu)

[Don't get depressed over something like this!] (Taku)

[Just let me be, I will seal it properly later] (Yu)

[Seal!] (Yu)

The fallen rabbit became grain of light and is gradually being absorbed into the book. After the light disappeared there was a magic seal on the page with rabbit picture. 20% has been added to the rabbit seal.

Cuteee. . . .

[Owh so this is how the summoner feels when sealing for the first time] (Yu)

[Ah too bad we can't take the fur] (Taku)

[Just wait a little more for me to reach 100%] (Yu)

[Well. . . well. . . just leave it to us] (Sylph)

[Even so. . . I didn't do anything] (Yu)

[It's alright Yu, we will look for a good wand or rod when we go back to the city for you] (Taku)

[I'm counting on you!] (Yu)

Somehow I'm feeling miserable. By the way, long cane is used to hit an enemy and a short wand is only used for magic activation.

4 Hikime – Rabbit Summoning

4 Hikime – Rabbit Summoning

« Player has level-up . Please update your status »

[Ooh?] (Yu)

[Aah!] (Sylph)

[Alright!] (Taku)

We leveled-up and at the same time rabbit's seal rate reached 100%

[Tereterettette tto... we level-up] (Sylph)

[Yeah] (Yu)

[Hmm... Yu for the time being is better to raise your physical strength, agility, or magic] (Taku)

[I see] (Yu)

For now I don't know what is good or bad, so let's believe the senior players.

Indeed the brother and sister thinking alike.

« Earned 2 skill points . Current skill points : 10→12 »

Be it SP or Fire Magic let's set those aside, for now I'm curious about the rabbit.

[Seal!] (Yu)

Once you seal the monster and the seal rate reaches 100% the page will shine.

« Rabbit seal rate is now 100% »

« Rabbit was completely sealed »

« Completely sealed monster : 1 »

« The possible monster to summon : 1 »

Info came in succession. The counter time has been started.

« Summon . Monster »

« Summon . Rabbit »

[Ohh... This is amazing!] (Yu)

The summoning spell started. The rabbit page from the book torn off and go flying. It flew and then landed on the ground, at the same time a magic circle generated. From that place a shadow appeared!!
Well, just a rabbit though.

[Kyuiii. . . ?]

[ [Cute !!!] ] (Yu & Sylph)

The rabbit that come from the magic circle approached me with unsteady steps and tilted her neck. I can't say so much because this is just rabbit but it's no problem because is cute.

Rabbit

Rabbits mainly live in the grassland. Have a high search operation ability and mobility. Hardly any monsters that target it except for the beginner adventurer. If approached it, will run away with full force until it's determined there is no enemy. Rabbit Fur is often used as material for clothes and armor. the main attacks it uses are body, bite, etc.

« Monster : please give the summoned Rabbit a name »

The summoned rabbit's fur is white like the snow. Pink ears and such beautiful red big round eyes like a ruby, very charming and fluffy.

[Hmm. . . the name is it?] (Yu)

I can't think of anything good.

[How was it Onee-chan, the name for this cute child?] (Sylph)

[well, for appropriate name it's need inspiration because this is important] (Taku)

Taku's annoying. You probably don't want to think about it because it's troublesome. And Sylph, why you playing with the rabbit earlier than me? Change with me later okay.

[What a terrible name sense] (Sylph)

[Really? I think it's a cute name? Nee, Boparu-chan ♪?] (Yu)

[Kyuii. . . ?]

Whatever Sylph says, Boparu has accepted the name. Uwaaah. . . super cute, hurry change place with me Sylph.

[Hmm... So what are we going to do next? back to city? Hunting again?] (Taku)

[Let's go hunting a little more, the city is still crowded and I still want to raise my level. Besides I want to see how Boparu-chan fight. Onee-chan are you fine with that?] (Sylph)

[Yeah is good, and don't call me Onee-chan!!] (Yu)

I don't have any problem with that, but Sylph please stop hugging Boparu-chan to yourself, I am her master you know? don't forget about that!

[Ki~yuii!]

[Boparu-chan? jump] (Sylph)

Shortly after we starts to walk, Boparu (cute) that was held by sylph suddenly jumped and starts to running with pyokopyoko and her ears suddenly perked up.

[Oh! Boparu-chan wait!] (Sylph)

[Oh! Hey Sylph! Let's follow it Yu] (Taku)

[Oh, ouuu] (Yu)

Furiously we are running after Boparu. Shortly we stopped and there was a figure of a rabbit that was bitten by another rabbit.

[Giii....]

[Kyuii...]

There is a tussle between rabbit and rabbit.
I don't know which one is Boparu because they look alike. Sylph which caught up first had already drawn her rapier.

[Kyuiiii!!!]

Boparu-chan is the rabbit that has the upper-hand. I know it because I saw a green marker on Boparu.

[Ooo... Boparu-chan amazing!] (Sylph)

[The fight was determined with the pre-emptive attack, it's good because they have the same status] (Taku)

[Oh her Hp bar is only 2% left. Let's take a break okay?] (Yu)

[Kyuii~!]

In the forest Boparu find two more rabbits. We get 3 pieces of rabbit fur from total three rabbits that Boparu found. Because it's material originally used for beginner armor, it won't sell for a high price, but right now the price is higher than usual. Lucky!

[Kyuii~?]

[Hmm. . .?] (Yu)

[Who would think to fight with two rabbit in a matter of minutes since coming up here? But to accurately grasp the position of the enemy in such a distance that does not enter the field of vision is quite difficult, I wonder if it's because of a skill?] (Taku)

[Of course because Boparu-chan is amazing, look at how cute it is, cute is justice!] (Sylph)

[Why is Sylph acting all bossy, I don't understand. From now on I'm counting on you as a lookout in the forest] (Yu)

[Kyuii~!]

[Well for combat lets just leave it to those two people, we'll just do what we can do!] (Yu)

Well I almost can't do anything though...

5 Hikime – VS Wild Dogs

5 Hikime – VS Wild Dogs

[When I leveled-up I got a magic skill, but how do you use magic?] (Yu)

[Oh there are other magics too, I thought you only had Summoning Magic] (Taku)

[Onee-chan, first you select the magic from the magic list, after the chants completed the magic will activate. But if you receive damage while chanting, there is a possibility the chant will be canceled. The higher damage taken the higher possibility your chant will be canceled. Well this will be useless if you take a critical hit while chanting though. By the way level 1 of Fire Magic is Fireball] (Sylph)

[Is that so? Let's try it!] (Yu)

« Fireball activate! »

When you select Fireball from the magic list your mouth will begins moving to chant automatically. Somehow it's ticklish when your body moves without permission.

[Wait! wait! stop! stop!] (Taku)

[Hmm... what's the matter?] (Yu)

Oh, the chanting has stopped. I see it's stops When I'm talking.

[It's true that the power of Fire Magic is higher than other magic but there are some disadvantages as well. First the range is short, it can not be used in water, you will receive oxygen deficiency when using it in caves or closed spaces, and We are in the forest if you use Fire Magic and it spreads we will also received damage] (Taku)

[And it's will stand out if used in the dark. Well there are both advantages and disadvantages] (Sylph)

[I see] (Yu)

Fire Magic is not convenient huh? Summoning Magic is much better. Well it is better than nothing.

[Onee-chan, I recommend Wind Magic, the range is long and the attack is difficult to avoid because it's hard to see] (Sylph)

[The power is low but it's easy to hit. That's how it is. . . ] (Taku)

[Kyuiii~!]

Boparu started to become restless, this happens when she finds an enemy, for the time being Fire Magic is “No”. We headed to the monster that Boparu found. It was there, a Caterpillar was chewing armful of grass with mokyumokyu.

Monster : Caterpillar Lv1

State : passive (in meal)

« Skills: Appraisal skill has level up! »

[Oh Caterpillar. The thread is a material for creating armor and the drop rate is high ] (Taku)

[Cute!] (Sylph)

[Really?] (Yu)

The figure of the caterpillar eating is indeed cute as Sylph said, but the size is a little. . .

[This is cute, look!! It will grow into a beautiful butterfly] (Sylph)

[It will be scary if it grows into a moth though] (Taku)

[Boo... then no need to Seal it] (Sylph)

[Oh please do] (Yu)

With such things the combat started --- and then ended. Taku approached caterpillar from behind and cut it in two, it's finished.

This is. . . there was no need to use Fire Magic more precisely no need to use any. The caterpillar seal-rate is 20% same as rabbit, that means I need four more to completely seal it.

*****

[Kyuii~! Kyuii~ kyuikyui~!]

['''Gurruururururururu''']

We walk through the forest while looking for the next prey, suddenly Boparu raised cries of alarm. Not long 5 dogs make an appearance, raised its voice as if threatening.

[Kyuii ~ . . . ]

Although we are not in attack range yet, the distance was gradually shortened.

[. . . Wild dogs. They always acted in groups of 3 or more and with the hiding skill they can launch a surprise attack too. The most troublesome opponents in the forest. It's drop fang and claw that hardly have any use] (Taku)

[I and Taku will kill one dog each, try holding back the other one and wait for reinforcements] (Sylph)

Boparu's HP has about 40% left. Magic can't be used and I don't have any other skill for battle. I just need to buy time and leave the rest to Taku and Sylph. But. . .

[Don't ask for the unreasonable!] (Yu)

[Right...] (Sylph)

[Then you can burn that one to crispy] (Taku)

Taku and Sylph approaching the wild dog while swinging their weapon to intimidate it. And on my side. . . .

["Gururururururururu"]

[Here we go Boparu!] (Yu)

[Kyuii~!]

With less physical strength Boparu used hits and run tactic, taking advantage of her speed. The front is in my charge.

[Come here!!] (Yu)

I am yelling around to get the the wild dogs attention so Boparu can launch an attack. When the dog jumping to me I have to avoid it at all cost because I don't have a weapon to fend it off.

[Watch-!] (Yu)

When I make a big horizontal jump, I fell on my butt because I tripped over tree root.

[Gururu...!]

There was no reason that the Wild Dogs would not launch a chase in such a golden opportunity. Wild dogs run up at full speed to me that fell down without even worrying about the surroundings.

[Kyuii———!]

[Gyaou!?]

Like a bullet charge Boparu thrust at the flank of the Wild Dog. The Wild Dog that tangled with Boparu rolled over to my right side.

[Nice Boparu] (Yu)

[kyuii!!]

When The Wild Dog tried to get up I jumped and kicked it's belly like a soccer ball.

[Gyaou.....]

The body of Wild Dog flew and crashed into a tree and then lost its remaining HP.

6 Hikime – Merchant

6 Hikime – Merchant

[Amazing Onee-chan you've won!] (Sylph)

[No it was because of Boparu's cooperation, especially for the last part] (Yu)

[Don't be like that, it was your hard work too] (Taku)

I have had enough, I don't think we will win if we have to fight like that again

[I think it was a good fighting though, I was suprised!] (Sylph)

[Well it's good that both of you are safe] (Taku)

Well I know that, but what is this hazy feeling?

That's aside, we defeated 5 Wild Dogs and the sealed rate went up to 50%. 10% per dog huh? That's half of the rabbits and caterpillars

[Well, Boparu's combat power was confirmed. Level was also raised. It's time to go back to town] (Taku)

[Agreed] (Sylph)

[Yeah. I want to rest a little as well] (Yu)

We left the forest while looking at the mini-map that automatically generated to where we first came. On the way we sealed two more caterpillars, there are a lot players but not to the point where it's crowded. On the contrary the plains were very crowded, lots of players were fighting rabbits there.

[It seem Ria-san is in transition street of the south gate] (Taku)

[We headed to meet up with an acquaintance from the beta] (Sylph)

[Yu, are you listening?] (Taku)

[Don't worry, it was likely "Onee-chan" illness] (Sylph)

[Who is sick? So, what kind of person is Ria-san?] (Yu)

Hmm... Rian-san is a merchant, she's also cooks a little, and other various things like mediator for the production worker alliance. Look like a female boss? such feeling when people gathered around her

(TL : it's witten in romaji "Onna bossu" so I will keep as it)

[Oh. female boss is it?] (Ria)

Suddenly a voice call out from the side.

When we turn around we saw a woman in a stall waving her small hand

[Ri ~ Ria-san. . .?] (Sylph)

[Ooh so you are Yu-chan. Sylph sent me riddle like e-mail that she wanted to introduce me to her sister brother] (Ria)

[Hello, I am Sylph's brother] (Yu)

Ria-san who smiled softly doesn't look like a female boss at all. But for some reason Sylph is frozen stiff.

[Hmm.... I hadn't heard that a sex changed function was added] (Ria)

[No no this guys looks like this even in real life, well his hair is short though] (Taku)

[Oh long time no see Taku, did you come to buy something?] (Ria)

[Yes, we brought some rabbit fur and we need a cane for this guy] (Taku)

[A Cane is it? Wait a minute, I think Ren-kun has made some] (Ria)

[Ooh we can expect that] (Taku)

[Fufufu the skill level was reset but I don't think there is much differences in product] (Ria)

Sylph was silently standing besides Taku who spoke to Ria-san like dealing with superior opponent. The little sister I know is someone with a fearless personality, but I don't know if Ria-san is the type that she's not good at dealing with? I don't understand.

[You mean that Ren? The beta player?] (Sylph)

[Carpenter. . . summary a person who deals with wood products like cane, bow, or furniture. Ren-kun was famous during beta, good enough to have its own brand name.] (Ria)

[Oh that's amazing] (Yu)

For now we will wait for Ren-kun that will bring some of his crafted Canes here.

[Let's start with fur first, so how many did you bring?] (Ria)

[A total of three, one each] (Taku)

[Heee, it was less than I thought] (Ria)

[Oh this guy is a Summoner] (Taku)

Taku put a hand on my shoulder while smiling at me mischievously. After a moment of silence Ria-san smiled wryly while looking at us. I will let you imagine what she thinks about me.

[Hello, I'm Yu the Summoner] (Yu)

[Kyuiii~!]

Boparu jumped on the counter of the stall and raise her hand. Cute!!

[Oh dear, that's an unusual job. Summoner is a rare job that came out during job selection, it was famous because it's a inefficient job. You are probably the only Summoner in the first generation. You should do your best!] (Ria)

Seriously? I never heard of it, will I be the only one who becomes a Summoner?

That's impossible, right?

You two over there!!

Why do you avert your eye?

Do you hit my shoulder to comforting me?

[Eeeh... maybe I want to become one too] (Ren)

It's a boyish girl that has interrupted our conversation. No, a boyish boy? A boy wears the meaning of boyish. In short the boy who looks like a boyish girl?

This cute child can't be a girl.

[Ah you are. . .] (Taku)

Taku be quite!

[Yo hoo Taku-kun and Sylph-chan. That Onee-chan over there I think this is the first time we've met. I'm Ren the carpenter nice to meet you] (Ren)

[Yo hoo Renren. As you see this is Yu-chan my sister] (Sylph)

There Sylph started again, but she's not looking at Ria-san at all. I don't know what you're so afraid of. . .

[Hello, I'm Sylph brother my name is Yu and I'm Summoner. This rabbit is Boparu and one more thing don't call me Onee-chan] (Yu)

[Kyuiii ~ !]

"Nice to meet you" Boparu raises her hand as to say that.

[Oh my, Boparu-chan is so smart] (Sylph)

[Kyuiii...]

Sylph catches Boparu that was standing on stall counter and started to brush Boparu against her cheek. Boparu try's to struggling but soon gives up because it can't win against Sylph's strength. Please control yourself, Boparu HP hasn't recovered yet!

[Then Yu-san has the same type male-avatar like me. We are comrades] (Ren)

[Ah... yes] (Yu)

Somehow a camaraderie has been forged. Taku has a similar type male-avatar but he is not mistaken for a girl. I am feeling happy about it but somehow it's also complicated.

[Oh yeah the cane was it? Because I made it, I can guarantee its performance Please choose the one you like. Ria-san can I borrow your counter?] (Ren)

[Sure, wait a moment] (Ria)

On the small counter variuos canes line-up. From small to big each different.

[The material is mostly from oak so there is no additional effects. Speaking of which what are you using? Wand or rod? For magic efficiency I recommended a wand or so called short cane] (Ren)

[This one] (Yu)

Ren talked happily like a machine gun, but I had decided since the first time I saw this guy (cane). The length is about 1m 30cm, this is the longest cane that Ren brought. A hemisphere decoration on the top and ferrule on the base. You might think it's rather thin but I have no problem with that.

[Weapon : Cane] Oak Rod rarity 1

ATK +10 magic attack power +5 weight 2 endurance value 300

Long cane made by shaving the oak tree Auxiliary also performs the effect of magic actuation are oriented to the physical attack is low

[Hoo...] (Yu)

I'm shaking it lightly with the bottom as the center, you can guess capacity of the maker from there. It's beautifull and it's easy to handle, this is a good cane. Maybe is better if there is little more weight, well I will use it as my main weapon.

[It's good, this one please] (Yu)

[Are you sure?] (Ren)

[Well that's just like Yu] (Taku)

Hey hey what do you mean by that?

[Well rather than cane is closer to being called staff, it's a decent weapon but the magic attack is rather small so no demand for it. I will give it as present for our meeting today] (Ren)

[Eh is that okay? This is for sale isn't?] (Yu)

[No problem, I think this child will be more happy getting to be used by Yu, Rather than unsold and wearing dust in the warehouse and you don't have much money on you, right?] (Ren)

[Ahh. . . ] (Yu)

Come to think I only have little money from one rabbit fur. Then... is not enough at all.

[I know it, because Summoner seems to run out of money in an early stage. It's also better to keep some production skill to earn money] (Ren)

[Thank you, I will gratefully accept it] (Yu)

[Yeah, I will expecting your favor in the future... just kidding] (Ren)

Looking at mischievously laughing Ren I now understand why poeple mistaken him for a girl.

7 Hikime – Cosplay Girl

7 Hikime – Cosplay Girl

« Caterpillar seal rate is now 100%” »
« Caterpillar was completely sealed »
« Skill : Summoning Magic Has Leveled-up »

I used the Oak Rod as my main weapon and the Book of Sealing Magic as my sub-weapon. After that I decided to acquire some new skills to fight. I choose Dash, Avoidance, Defense, and Cane skill as Taku recommended and it consumed 9 SP.

Right now is 8 pm in the real world, it's time for dinner.

I quickly added Ria-san and Ren-kun to my friend list. Because apparently Ria-san is opening a stall, next time I will be under her care for purchasing materials.

We logged out from FWO for dinner.

By the way we're having curry for dinner today.

Why curry? Because it's simple and easy to make. My mother didn't want to be troubled to make dinner.

Tsubasa wiped the table while watching TV. I'm going to the kitchen to get the curry ready.

[This is your serving] (Yu)

[Thanks] (Tsubasa)

We both sit in front of TV while dinner.

I don't understand what is so funny about it, but for some reason Tsubasa's laughing so hard when she watching some comedian on TV. Well, it's no use to think about it.

[Aah that's remind me. Onii-chan give me that. . . hurry. . . Ummm. . . what is it again? Ah. . . sea anemone!] (Tsubasa)

(TL : イソギンチャク = sea anemone, Eh you can eat that?)

[Here] (Yu)

[Thanks] (Tsubasa)

It seems to have been the correct answer. It just, why do you put sea anemone in curry - - -

I finished such an exhausting dinner and went back the world of FWO again.

Taku and Sylph joined a party with another beta player, and they seem to enter real capture, so my beginner lecture also ends with this. I entering the outskirt forest to hunt for monster. There Boparu found another 2 Caterpillars, after we defeated them the seal rate went up to 100%.

(TL : It's already 100% in the beigning of chapter isn't?)

[Phew. . . Caterpillar sealing completed!] (Yu)

[Kyuii!]

[Oh, this is also because of Boparu. Thanks!] (Yu)

[Kyuii ]

Boparu somehow looks like it squirms from embarrassed. Cutee!!

[Hmm. . . what to do now. I wonder if I should proceed farther to forest but there are Wild Dogs and it's scary. well I think this is good enough for the first day] (Yu)

[Kyuiii~]

Boparu nods as for agreement to my words.

The sun was gradually setting on the horizon from the time when we logged in. It dyed the vicinity with a dark red color. From some far away place I can hear the cries of the crows.

It's already passed 9:00 pm in the evening in real the world, it'll be utterly dark on the outside. It's inappropriate to say that evening finally came in game, but internal time in the game and reality does not match up.

Anyway- - -

[The forest in the night is still too much for our current level, how about we go back to the city? Or do you want to continue hunting around the city? I think there are some night monster too.] (Yu)

[Kyuii ! !]

At first I thought Boparu raised its voice for approval.

But it's different. This is warning. I look around while holding my cane immediately, but there is no enemy to be seen.

Boparu small eyebrows contorted, she hasn't released her battle position yet. Its long ear are moving as trying to picking up the surrounding sound.

I also look into the surrounding so as not to overlook any trivial change.

Because my ability to grasp the surrounding presence is far inferior to Boparu. I hold my breath as not to interfere. Boparu is still being vigilance because she feels something that surely can't be felt by me.

[Kyui!]

Boparu starts to running into one direction because it find something.
I'm chasing after Boparu in a hurry but because I can't keep up with its speed
Boparu from time to time stopped and waited for me.

Anyway we arrived at a place we've never been before. And suddenly - - -

Dogaaaaa.....n Sfx

[Kyuii?]

A roaring sound rang out suddenly from inside the forest breaking the silence.
The sound which makes one think of thunder or some explosive sounds.

I was surprised at the explosive sound and we stopped for moment because of that. After we calmed down we started to running again to the place where the sound come from.

After we arrived, I noticed some abnormality there.

Now that it's dusk, the night type monster will start to appears. Though it's a little dim in the forest even during the afternoon, the sunset is obstructed by groves when the sun has begun to set. We somehow still can see our footing but in one hour I think this is will be difficult. And the explosive sound a short while ago will very likely attract the monster around here. Summary this place is dangerous.

That sound is probably a bomb or something that exploded. That is, maybe there was someone that used a bomb earlier. If you think like that it matches the situation, maybe because there was someone here Boparu ran in such hurry.

[~~ Kyaaaaaaa!! ~~]

[~Shoo. . . Noo. . . Don't come here!!!~]

Someone is in combat with a monsters, yet I can't decided which one is inferior.

Monster : Crow Lv2

State : Active

It wasn't difficult. . . it's just this spectacle was too unexpected for me, and I have stopped walking involuntarily.

I was surprised that the cries of crows that I heard a little while ago was not just BGM but the cries of monster Crows. And I was more surprised to see countless monster Crows flocking around a girl.

(TL : BGM = Background music)

With watery eyes she trying to drive away the monsters Crow.

She was about the same age as me. In addition in the left and right side of her long pink blond hair there are- - -

Twin tail? Two side rise? Rabbit knot?

I do not know what it called but because the owner of the appearance was excellent there is no word that can express it except a beautiful girl.

Problem was in the appearance of the girl. The jackets basis was made of white and pink and was decorated with pretty frill all around and it combined with a dress-like skirt.

The jacket is like a corset which goes along the lines of the body tightly, accentuating the girl's natural curves, mounds, and valleys to attract men. Such clothes that were designed to make it easy to move. In addition, the skirt rather than being below the knee is above the knee as not to interfere with movement. Every time the girl swings the cane in her hand to shake off a crow, the short skirt nearly flips up to a dangerous height.

Cane wielding girl with colorful clothes. . .

If I have to say is like a cosplay of magical girl (Mahou shoujo) from some moe anime. If you put a crystal to the tip of cane it will be perfect.

Anyway, you only can find such a cute dressed girl in a few places in japan but not in forest of course. I think she is in a pinch, surely I have to do something not just stand here stunned with watching this surreal spectacle.

TL Note : In case you miss it, Tsubasa is real name of Sylph

8 Hikime – VS Crow Populations

8 Hikime - VS Crow Population

[Kyuiii!]

The adolescent thought that were running through my head took me to somewhere nice to escape from reality. Boparu started to struggle in my hands as if to say “Let me go!” Finally my consciousness back to reality.

[E~to... there are a lot things I want to retort but for now let's help her Boparu!]
(Yu)

[Kyuii!]

« C Quest : “Encounter with Alchemist Girl” do you accept it? Y/N »

Some text appeared, because there was no time to think about that I just ignored it. Then YES was chosen automatically and the text disappeared. It seems my behavior was interpreted as a chosen answer. Well I'm not sure though.

[Kyuiiiiii!!]

[Kaaa..!?]

Taking the initiative Boparu attacked with bang!! as it hit the crow that came flying down to attack the girl. I continuously stomped the crows that were laying on the ground and still had remaining HP after being attacked by Boparu.

[E~h?! ... Eh?!] (Cosplay girl)

[Kaaa- - - -!]

Leaving aside the girl that's flustered because a small savior suddenly appeared, The crows focused their attacks toward Boparu that defeated their comrades.

No matter how quick Boparu continuously attacking the crows, they still have the advantage in the sky. It's would just be a matter of time before the table turned. To approach an enemy that flys around Boparu needs to run at full strength from the beginning before launched an attack.

Of course I'm not just watching---

**Swoosh!* Sfx*

With an upper strike, I bring down one of crows that trying to attack Boparu from behind. I poised the cane lika a sword to prepare for the next attack.

[Kaaa!?!]

The crow fell to ground while uttering a suprise cry. I unleashed my cane like a spear to thrust the falling crow.

[Shit!] (Yu)

[Gagaga]

The falling crow still have 10% HP remaining

[Haa!] (Yu)

It's likely no longer able to get up let alone fly. I stabbed the crow with my cane until it no longer HP remain and it stopped moving. 3 more came huh? This is tough.

[ [ [Kaaa!] ] ]

I don't think these guys will let us win easily. I can tell from the flying crows that still clearly see us with hostility. It's going to be a troublesome endurance race.

*****

[Raaa!!] (Yu)

[Kaaa!!]

Another one is killed, I don't remember how many Crows I've defeated so far. But it's certain that the flying Crows still increased no matter how many we defeated.

[Kaaa---]

[Kyuii---]

The curtain of night has fallen, if anything I want to leave this place already. Facing repeated wave-like attacks, my HP has fallen below 50% and soon will hit 40%. Half of the enemy still survived and they begun to counterattack.

Boparu is no better than me its HP has fallen below 20% and might sink in the next blow. Anyhow, except for when attacking the crows are flying over head in the sky. So if it jumps carelessly Boparu will also received damage from another crows attack.

Because damage to both is inevitable when striking, the attack is only reversed after the charge is evaded, but the cooperation of the crows isn't so superficial that a slow counterattack is permitted.

Therefore Boparu keeps provoking crows while avoiding their attacks. Meanwhile I occasionally launch an attack from behind.

But this situation won't last forever, the enemy is steadily decreasing along with our HP. Right now we can only wait and see which side goes down first.

[Kyuiii~!?!]

[Boparu!!] (Yu)

Boparu finally can't avoid an attack and received direct hit. Its HP decreased at a frightening speed.

[Kyu - - - -]

Boparu's body slowly disappears like haze.

- - - - -No!!

Boparu wasn't really dead. She just can't be summoned for one day as a death penalty. Tomorrow I can see its cheerful figure again.

I know that . . .

But still - - - - -

[Bastard. . . . you did it. I don't care anymore, come here. . . I will kill every single of you!] (Yu)

6 Crows left, and they are flying unsteadily.

I have 30% HP remaining, my movement become dull because of the mental fatigue from fighting. It's thanks to Boparu that I still can stand now. Boparu devoted itself to support me and received incoming attack in my stead.

But Boparu is not here anymore . . .

For now I want nail the heads of all those guys in front of me to Boparu's coffin.

Ga~tsu---

Five crows left, I got hit on my back but there is no sense of pain just little a slight feeling discomfort.

[Good bye] (Yu)

[Kaaa?!]

I had predicted the attack to some extent.

I immediately twisted my body, and with the momentum I hit one crow with full force. It flew and then crashed on a tree. 4 Crows left.

[ [ [ Kaaa!!! ] ] ]

Simultaneous attack from three directions. 2 from the side and 1 straight from the front, I swung my cane from the side and hits 1 crow. It flew and crashed into another crow in the air. The last one that was coming from the front canceled its attack and flew overhead. Two crows remains.

[Kaaa!]

The 3rd crow from earlier turned in the air. It's charging at me from air to increase its speed. The flapping sounds that I hear give me an unpleasant feeling. I immediately jumped to the side, after awhile a crow attacked the place I was before.

It was dangerous

It approaches me again, giving me no time to take a breath. Because my center of gravity is unstable I can neither avoid or intercept the incoming attack.

**Impact**

In the last moment I received attack with my cane halfway through. I grasped a foot of the Crow that stopped for moment and beat it against the ground just as it is.

[Gyaga. . .]

In the end it can't stand anymore. 1 Crow left.

[Kaaa !!]

The remain one fly straight to me

Whether it got angry because I killed its companions or because it's foolish and can't understand the difference in strength.

Well either one is fine, I defeated the last one. Now no crow are left

[Ah sorry. Umm . . what is this?] (Yu)

The cosplay girl applied some cream while holding my right arm. She look at me with a doubtful look and then cutely tilted her head when she heard my question.

[Ah you see, this is Heal Cream. . . a medicine -desu. If it's a potion you have to drink it so this is easier to use. And I'm confident this is more effective than potion -desu!] (Cosplay Girl)

She changed her worried look to a smile. With happy expression she expaliated about the medicine to me

Well that looks better.

She is cute when she laughs. . .

Yep she is cute when laughing! !

And it's applied. . . and applied.

Indeed from the places the cream was applied I can feel a warm feeling spread all over my body, my HP is also quickly recovering. It seems to be a really excellent recovery means.

Haaa. . . I was wondering why she was still here when she didn't have much combat power, but this kind-hearted girl is worried about me who fought on her behalf.

[I was worried whether I could return to a town safely if alone -desu!] (Ell)

[Eehh . . . you mean that?] (Yu)

It's not me, she was worried about herself.

Do-Don't misunderstand okay! It's not---(we skipped this part)

[Oh?] (Yu)

[Is there something wrong -desu?] (Ell)

[Ah nothing!] (Yu)

Now we are traveling in the forest at night while looking at the map. I trampled down an Owl that came at us with hoo-hoo sound. My skills went up.

The Owl gave extremely good experience it couldn't be compared with a Crow. Even though avoidance and defense weren't used they leveled-up.

By the way, without having decent light we're forced to march in the forest at night. I was wondering if something was strange on my head because we can see our surroundings despite that.

As expected of a game world.

[Hmm. . . I had been thinking for a while now, isn't Yu a Summoner?] (Ell)

[Ouuu. . . I sealed a Crow and Owl earlier, Boparu is the summoned rabbit you may have saw as well] (Yu)

[Aah I see. But don't Summoners fight in a rearguard position?] (Ell)

[. . . it may generally be so] (Yu)

[No. . no. . isn't a Summoner a magic user? Ordinarily they are in a rearguard position, I never heard of a Summoner hitting an enemy with a cane] (Ell)

[. . . what is ordinary? Do you have to do what everyone else does? What's the significant with that? Is there a problem in choosing something that isn't ordinary, I don't cause problems for anyone else so they shouldn't be able to complain.] (Yu)

[Hmm. . . I see. What Ell has done also isn't common. Well It's all thanks to Yu that I was saved, really!] (Ell)

Well the way you're dressed and speak isn't common either.

They are coming at us 1-2 each time so I can still handle it. I also wondered why the encounter rate with owl was so high?

Sealing has been completed before I got out of the forest. If there was no heal cream from Ell, it would have been dicey.

[Fwuuh finally we left the forest] (Ell)

[Right, the town is just a little more] (Yu)

We feel relieved because we can see the town from here.

I don't know what kind of monsters appear in the grassland at night, but I think it's weaker than an Owl. But I can't let my guard down because we don't know what it might be---

[Around this time, usually Rat monsters will come out. So let's hurry to the town, I don't want we get attacked] (Ell)

[Ah, yes!] (Yu)

There seems to be no danger on the way home. Right.

*****

[Fwuuh. . . A lot of things happened today but finally I can back to the town safety, thank you -desu!] (Ell)

I came to a different town. I have school tomorrow so it's time for me to log out. Boparu isn't here as well.

[Well there is message system so I don't have to worry about such things] (Yu)

My level also rose but Boparu died though.

[It would be ungrateful for me if I didn't give you anything -desu. Even if I said that I don't have any money, so for the time being I will give you this. . .] (Ell)

[Item : Recovery agents] Heal Cream rarity 1
Topical cream to restore the physical strength

She handed me 5 familiar ointments. I'm very fortunate in the current state as I have no recovery means.

[Oh thank you it's will be of great help!] (Yu)

[Something like this is not near enough to express my gatitude to you for saving me] (Ell)

[Right. . .] (Yu)

[Ell will tell you the location of my atelier (workshop) so you can come play anytime, ok? So then, it's about time for Ell to go. . . let's meet again later desudesu -desu! !] (Ell)

[Ouu see you!] (Yu)

We parted here, waving her hand while saying "desudesu" she smile innocently.

« C Quest : "Encounter with Alchemist girl" has completed! »

« Earned 2 skill points . Current skill points : 7 → 9 »

Yosh quest cleared, SP getto! (get)

I think that's enough for today. For tomorrow what should I do until Boparu's revived. Maybe stroll in the town, or come to Ell's atelier, or maybe hunt Rabbits? Boparu will be revived at night maybe I will try to seal Rat monster later. And then what should I choose for my newly summoned monster---

Well let's think about it tomorrow. . .

Good night!!

10 Hikime – Rabbit Meat

10 Hikime - Rabbit Meat

The next day.

To be honest, I underestimated FWO.

No way. . . you've got to be kidding me! One-third of my class including Taku is absent. Do you really want to play the game that bad? Aah. . . I'd like to play as well!!

Today is Friday and tomorrow we have a holiday, can you guys endure it a little?

Well it's not for me to say. . .

During a class I could not concentrate at all. when the school ended, I ran straight home as fast as I could.

By the way Tsubasa was also absent as well. God damn it!!

*****

When I logged in, it was night.

It's strange, I should be logged in at the same time as yesterday, when I checked it, it seems one day in FWO is 20 hours.

Noon is 10 hours included 1 hour for dusk. Night is 10 hours included 1 hour for sunrise. It is shifted by 4 hours from the real time.

(TL : it says sunrise not dawn)

In other words, because yesterday dusk was at 9:00 pm, today dusk will be at 5:00 pm and from 6:00 pm it will be night time. Noon will be at 6:00 am. Day and night will be reversed perfectly in 3 days, and will be turn back in 6 days.

The monsters in day and night are also changed, it's troublesome but everything was taken into account. It must be the result from considering people who can only log-in at night.

[Now then. . . the schedule is messed up] (Yu)

I try to remember the schedule I considered yesterday.

Schedule no.1 : Stroll in the town.

Player's store are still open now but NPC store are started to close. But I wanted to stroll through town while it was light out

Schedule no.2 : Visited Ell's atelier.

It's not appropriated to visited a girl house at night without an appointment.

Schedule no.3 : Hunt and sealing Rat monster with Boparu.

I have to wait for four and half hours until Boparu's resurrected. I think a Rat has the same strength as a Rabbit so I can do it alone, but I'd like to raise Boparu level too. I don't think the experince point from the Crows were distributed to Boparu so maybe its still level 2.

Well I decided on hunting Rat to kill time while I waited for Boparu revive. I can ask Taku and Sylph for help but I don't want to cause truble for their party member.

*****

I walked through town at night along with the palyers that starts to log-in one after another.

. . . Night life, somehow it sounds erotic. Well setting that aside, I realize something serious when I want to buy an apple from the food stall.

[I have no money. . .] (Yu)

The money from the Rabbit Fur that I hunted with Taku and Sylph is only enough to buy 2 apples. It seems I can get some money if I sell the Crow Feathers in my hand. I didn't get any material from Caterpillar and Owl because I had to seal them. It's little depressing to be a Summoner.

Bu. . .but I have Boparu with me, so how is it? Are you envious?

But right now Boparu is not here though . . . Aaah I want to meet soon. . .

*****

[Ria-san good evening] (Yu)

[Oh dear if it isn't Yu-kun. Welcome!] (Ria)

I take a side trip to a street where Ria-san opened a stall. For now I planned to get a little money, it's better than not having any right? Though I wasn't aware of it until just now, but I felt uneasy suddenly. Is this cold? I try to check my temperature and it's little feverish, is this due to a bad condition or is this something different?

Even so, Ria-san has a street stall just in the same way at the same place as yesterday. If you'r always watching a store here, I wonder how she can level-up?

[Aah you see, we also get experience point when doing trades with other players. Something like a bonus I think. But it's only a little and you can only get it once a day from the same player.] (Ria)

[Hou. . .] (Yu)

By the way, the silly idea that I had "Even I can easily earn experience points then...." has been denied by Ria-san while giving a complicated smile.

"Trade" is one of exclusive skill for the crafting profession. This is necessary if you want to get experience points from buying and selling or exchanging items. So, what happens if you buy or sell without the Trade skill?

Apparently loss occurs in the product, The quality drops, or the number times it can be used decreases, or the price drops, . . .and tax!

Also when using the Trade skill you will understand the fair price of the goods, but while being low-level it seems to slip fairly often, and it's quite unreliable or whatever.

That aside let's continue the transaction, price of 11 Crow Feathers is. . . same as two pieces of fur.

After all it's impossible for the feather which becomes a disposable arrow ingredient to be bought at a high price .

And the player ratio in the field is high now. There aren't a lot of different kinds of dropped items so stocks seems to have increased. And not many player use a bow so there is almost no demand so it makes the prices decrease more.

It's also said that there are places where they didn't buy Crow Feathers or if they do it bought dirt-cheap. So I can sell it at reasonable price, I seem to have been lucky. I'm grateful to Ria-san, thank you.

Now that I have some pocket money, let's leave Ria-san stall and go hunt Rats which was the original purpose.

[Nee~ Yu-kun. I wonder if you have any Rabbit Meat?] (Ria)

[Rabbit. . . meat?] (Yu)

I have been stopped by Ria-san, hmm. . . Rabbit Meat, didn't rabbits dropped fur?

[I think that the dropped items changed after the service update. It also wasn't until the service update that rabbit meat drops were added] (Ria)

Ria-san had a strange face when explaining it to me. Oh, beta information from Taku and Sylph certainly may not be the same at all since the service updated.

[You see about Rabbit Meat, stew that is made with it is superb. Moreover it will increased you skill significantly. I want to at least make it once!] (Ria)

[Eh Cooking skill? Ria-san do you have the Cooking skill?] (Yu)

[Well because there are rarely any customers, my level has also hardly risen] (Ria)
Her face is unusual, Ria san was embarrassed.

Cooking skill is useless in FWO, to begin with there are no hunger parameters in the FWO.

In the game you won't feels hungry or want to go to the toilet so in that case what was the Cooking skill for? Meals has become a complete luxury item in FWO.

Even they knew people still using SP to acquired cooking skill so they can create a delicious cuisine. There are more people that want to acquired the Cooking skill compared to Summoning magic and it's still increased.

[And the Rabbit Meat drop rate is very low. Moreover when your level exceeds level 3 it seems you will no longer encountered rabbits at all. When you find it they will run with amazing speed. And the majority of my acquaintance have exceeded level 3 so its even more difficult now. If you have it, I want you to let me have it] (Ria)

[Well, unfortunately I don't have any Rabbit Meat and my level also has exceeded 3, but. . . Boparu is level 2 and I plan to get another summoned monster soon, with two people (monster) it may workout somehow] (Yu)

[Really!? I will buy it a little bit higher than the market price. I will also shared the stew with you!] (Ria)

[Hahaha. . . I will work hard then. Well the one who will work is not me though but my summoned monsters] (Yu)

[well the person itself is absent so there is no meaning. Tell best regards to Boparu-chan from me and I will give it special service next time] (Ria)

3 hours remained before I can re-summon Boparu, well then let's go to seal the Rat.

11 Hikime – Owl summoning

11 Hikime – Owl Summoning

- « Rat seal rate is now 100% »
- « Rat was completely sealed »
- « Skill : Summoning Magic Has Leveled-up »

- « Completely sealed monster is : 5 »
- « The possible monster to summon is : 2 »
- « Skill : Fire Magic skill has leveled-up »

I have thought this many times, but it seems I still underestimated FWO.

Encounter rate of the Rat isn't low.

You can say is particularly high and they didn't hide or run away like rabbits. Not far from the town you can find 4-5 Rats entering your field of vision. But because of this other player also engaging Rats, well there are excess Rats so is enough.

To be precise the players that were going to the forest or mountains during the day, right now are all gathered in the grasslands. Well that's normal, I would also hesitate going to the forest or mountains in the darkness of night.

Besides I can't think of another place to go hunting alone. I don't want to take any unnecessary risk even after Boparu revived though. Anyways Rat has been sealed, once more let's fight on!

*****

3 hours later. . .

Huh. . . it's strange !?

(TL : The paragraph below is random [as for me] is inconsistent with overall chapter content. if you have better interpretation please tell me)

どうしてもうボーパルが召喚できるんだー？

Why Boparu can be summoned already?

匹での封印率は20%だからたった5匹で封印完了なのにー。

Rat seal rate is 20%, so five are needed to completely seal it.

ええ。分かってますよ。全て俺の見通しの甘さが原因です。はい。

Yeah I know. It's all due to my naive perspective. Yeah.

せめて飯を食いにログアウトしたときに一旦落ち着いて非効率さに気付けば良かったんだが

When I logged-out for dinner, I should have noticed the inefficiency if I calmly thought it through.

その時点でもう4匹封印

At that point 4 Rats had been sealed

していたからあと一匹あと一匹だからとそこから2時間ねばるはめに

From there I just need 1 more but 2 hours have passed since then.

*/

For now let's summon Boparu.

[Ki~yuiii!]

Boparu's so soft and fluffy with cute red round eyes, finally we are reunited. It can't be helped, let's play with each other for awhile.

-----
- - -The person is still playing with Boparu to his hearts content. Please wait a moment- - -
-----

Fwuuh. . . I've finally calmed down.

Boparurium that lacking for awhile has been replenished fully. Today's main event is making my skin glossy and healing my heart. I'm ready to summon the second monster.

Actually I have decided what monster I wanted to summon. So without further ado let's begin.

« Summon . Monster »
« Summon . Owl »

So my newly summoned monster is Owl. The reason is simple. Since it's the cutest one among my sealed monsters. The other one like Caterpillar, Rat, or Crow is a little. . . .

Also there is a great advantage a flying force to join the party.It can increased the scouting area and Owl would also be able to go on a night flight. I just realize how important the scouting ability was in the past 3 hours.The scouting ability is very important. . .

Mizuki Owl Lv1
Vitality : 10
Strength : 10
Agility : 14
Dexterity : 10
Magic : 6

Spirit : 5

Skills :

Flight, Ambush, Scouting, Night Vision

Owl

The birds of prey which lives in forests, grasslands, and mountains. Soundless wings and Night Vision is effective for assassination in the night. Charge from high altitude to ambush in the dark. Adept at restraining and attacking enemy with beak and claw.

Fukurō (Owl) → Mimizuku (Horned Owl) → Mizuku → Mizuki

And so from there Mizuki has been decided as Owl's name, I think it's good and appropriate.

[Hoo~]

[Ki~yuiii]

Mizuki landed in front of Boparu, tilted its neck and looking at each other. This is a new companion you know, let's get along okay?

Now I want to raise Mizuki's level right away, but honestly I want to be excused from hunting Rat.

It's inefficient also interminably (TL : I didn't see where is coming from)

Even so I want to avoid level 2 Boparu and Level 1 Mizuki from night time excursion.

Well then let's wait until morning to hunting Rabbits.

Right now is almost 11.00 pm, morning will come at 04.00 am so let's sleep until then. Tomorrow is a holiday so I can plays game throughout the day. Well time to rest. Good bye. Good bye. Good bye.

*****

Good morning. It is Yu on the site.

It's a pleasant morning, isn't it?

It's like the hustle and bustle of last night didn't even happen. It's so quite to the point there's not a single shadow to be seen in the grassland around the city. Nor a rabbit to be found.

Well I already expected it.

Rabbits will escape or hide immediately when they feel the presence of a player level 3 or above. Rabbits ability to detect an enemy's presence is high, you will know if you look at Boparu. Because of this reason. . . .

[Boparu! Mizuki! Our target are Rabbits! Search and destroy! Go forth to annihilate!] (Yu)

[Kyuii~!!] [Hoo~!!]

Boparu dashed off like an arrow, Mizuki also flew up and glided off quickly. I entrusted the enemy searching and battle to my summoned monsters. Let specialist handle that matter

I can take an easy part because I'm their master.

The hunting was going smoothly compared to yesterday.

There are no other players in grassland so I can monopolize the hunting ground. Their levels also rose quicker than I thought they would. No wild Rabbit can escape from Boparu's detection ability and Mizuki's attack from the sky.

The problem is these two are too fast, I can't keep up at all.

I told them to call me if they found a Rabbit. (I can see their position on the map) This situation continue with me being called from both sides one after another to collect materials. I'm running to the east and then running to the west, after that going back to the east and so on. Thank to this my Dash skill has leveled up.

By the way my Fire Magic was leveled-up because during that time I randomly shot Fireballs to drain my MP because I was bored.

MP to be unused is. . .

[Kyuii~]

Aand. . . that is conclusion of Boparu's battle.

Boparu poses triumphantly in front of the fallen Rabbits

Hoho. . . !!

Well then let's enjoy the harvest time.

The dropped items are mostly fur, Rabbit Meat rarely drops maybe 1 out of 20 times. I have three now but I still want more. Go for meat. . .

[Kyuii~]

Aah, the figure of the Rabbit that I stabbed with my knife disappeared and only white fur remained. Unfortunately this is also Rabbit Fur.

I picked up the Rabbit Fur without appraising it because I was tired of doing it so many times.

Hmm? Is this little bigger than usual? It's feel even smoother. Ordinary fur is just like a piece cloth but this had two protrusions on it.

It just like. . .

12 Hikime – I Started To Hunting Rabbit

12 Hikime – I Started To Hunting Rabbits

[Let's take a little break at the rest-point] (Taku)

[- -kay] [Aah I'm tired]

[Can you get tired from climbing mountain inside the game?]

[Not physically but I still can tired mentally]

North from the town of beginner.

We take a break in the flat open area of a mountain trail. We started climbing before the sun rose and we're just barely halfway to our destination. Trees grow sparsely here also our foothold is getting bad. Sometimes monster come out and if we are lucky we can find iron ore. And more than anything, it's not a bad place to raised our levels.

[Hey Taku, are you certain there is a monster boss on the mountain summit?]

[Ah, certainly there was a Stone Golem boss on the mountain summit in the beta time. It was defeated and dropped a large quantity of iron ore but the ordeal is ahead of it. To be honest this map was made in beta, so I want to check it myself] (Taku)

[Beta groups good job! I'm lucky because we have information from beta. That's means this group is winner. QED certification completed]

(TL : Have no idea what is this :D)

[Hai-hai. . . So Taku is the Stone Golem strong?]

[Big, hard, and slow. In other word it's easy-to-understand enemy. But it will be dangerous even if you just received one hit. You can scrape at its HP from behind while the vanguard gets its attention. You can get used to the attack pattern because is simple] (Taku)

[Hou. . .]

He returned with a tepid response and started to chat with the other party member. Hey it's because you ask so listen up carefully.

« Player : You received a call from Yu, accept it? Y/N »

[Oh a call from Yu? How unusual] (Taku)

This is the first time, I mean.

[Hello? Yu? How strange for you to call] (Taku)

[Taku! It came out. . . a rabbit dropped something and it's a Usamimi hood!] (Yu)

(TL : Usamimi = Usagi mimi = Rabbit ears)

[Eh? A rabbit dropped a Usamimi hood?] (Taku)

[ (nod! nod!) ] (Yu)

Sign of nod is returned from other side communication. No, you should talk because it's a voice call you know, it's only transmitted to me.

[That's probably a Rabbit's Hood. It's a rare equipment set that's dropped from a Rabbit, it seem was added after the update. Try appraised it and you will find 'set effect' status on it!] (Taku)

[Yes there is but it's blank] (Yu)

[Well yeah, unless you align it with the other sets there will be no effect] (Taku)

[You mean there are another equipment from the rabbit series?] (Yu)

[Umm. . . I never heard of it, but if this is an equipment set there must be other equipment, no? I never saw it though. That aside are you still fighting Rabbits? Because I'm climbing a mountain now so it's impossible, but I will help you to raise your level later] (Taku)

« Friend call has ended »

[He hung up] (Taku)

Well everyone has their own way to enjoy the game. I think it's good as long as he enjoy to playing (massacre) with Rabbits.

[Captain? Your friend called?]

[Ah, that's Ria's friend] (Taku)

[Ooh a girl?]

[Wrong, it's a boy friend] (Taku)

[She. . . with a guy. . . ha ha! Gufufu---]

[Hey Rika what the hell do you want?]

[What I want? Well of course---] (Rika)

[No wait! I don't want to hear that!]

That was quite excellent firepower from a mage that specialized in water magic.

[Assemble! We will start to move!] (Taku)

[Ouu. . .!!!]

All of the party members strated to stand up.

One, two, three . . . . . oh seven !!!!

The time is a little past 2 p.m. (TL : Real world time)

The vicinity has becomes dark already, and the monster that emerge have switched over from Rabbits to Rats. It was pretty last minute but it's nice to not straddle the day.

Well let's try the equipments immediately, that's what I want to say but first let's tidy up the surrounding.

[Mufufufu. . . . Boparu Mizuki I'm counting on you to clean up the surrounding]
(Yu)

[Kyuii~] [Hooo~]

With babyuun Boparu and Mizuki go off flying like a bullet to clean (extermination) the surrounding.

Well that's fine as long as I'm not interrupted.

Now let's take the full set of rabbit equipment from storage.

[Armor : Head] Rabbit's Hood rarity 2

Defense force +15 weight 1 endurance value 300

The hood is made using the fur of a rabbit

There is an ornament modeled on rabbit ears, and the quickness of a Rabbit is given to someone who equipped it.

[Effect]

Agility correction : Medium

Set effect : None

It's a pretty rabbit hood with design of 2 usamimi that grow on the top and made with soft fur with pyokon. The red small eye which sticks to the front and the mouth design was like the real one. You will understand its value when you look at it for the first time.

With a joy I tried to wear it, but what is this. . . Oouu the ears moves!!

This is regrettable that I can't see the ears moving for myself, but I will buy a mirror later by all means. Yeah let's do that.

[Armor : Hand] Rabbit's Gloves rarity 2

Defense +10 weight 0 endurance value of 200

The gloves are made using the fur or a rabbit

The back of the hand is decorated with a rabbit character, and the skillfulness of a Rabbit is given to someone who equipped it.

[Effect]

Dexterity correction : Medium

Set effect : None

The gloves have a small stuffed animal rabbit face on the back of the hand. It's so soft and fluffy also warm, I was worried whether it will fall off when I'm fighting, but maybe it's all right because this is a game.

[Armor : Foot] Rabbit's Boots rarity 3

Defense +10 weight 1 endurance value of 200

The shoes and the knee socks are made using the fur of a rabbit.

It's decorated with rabbit character around the shoes and knee socks, and the quickness of a Rabbit is given to someone who equipped it.

[Effect]

Agility correction : Medium

Set effect : None

The stockings are stripped on knees. The shoes itself are like a rabbits, and when you see it from the front. . .

I think to have seen slippers like this somewhere in the past. Such a design.

[Armor: clothes] Rabbit's Dress rarity ??

Defense force +50 weight 1 endurance value 500

The dress is made using the fur of a rabbit

A lower back is decorated with rabbit character, and the quickness of a Rabbit is given to person who equipped it.

[Effect]

Agility correction : Large

Set effect : None

Snow-white dress using the fur of a rabbit. The long sleeve to elbow and thigh to bottom knee are decorated with hemp. There is also an appliqué of a big rabbit on the right hip, and it's very pretty.

.....

Umm. . . I understand.

I knew at the time of the rabbit's boots.

This is girls equipment isn't it!? it's truly girls equipment isn't it!?

But I have equipped it !! (TL : You did it! lol)

I wouldn't dare to wear it if this was real world but here was a virtual world so there's no unwillingness so far. I'm not ashamed because it's not real!

Cute is Absolute Justice !!

TL Note : I changed skill (索敵) Scouting to Enemy searching for now onwards.

13 Hikime – Rabbit's Set In The Town

« Equipment set has been completed . The set effect is permitted »

My whole body is snow white, I'm wearing a fluffy rabbit set now!
Mufufu~ the agility correction is so high my whole body become very light.
Now I feel like can jump a few meters high like Boparu.

Perhaps it's because the agility correction are overlapping or maybe because of the dexterity value?

Well I don't know yet what dexterity value is related to.
That's aside let's check the set effect that has been activated.

Rabbit's Hood set effect = Set skill : Enemy searching
Rabbit's Gloves set effect = Dexterity correction : Medium
Rabbit's Boots set effect = Set skill : Jumping
Rabbit's Dress set effect = Agility correction : Medium

. . . What the hell is this? Let's say it again! What the hell is this?

Dexterity correction and agility correction are good. I think it's an adequate set effect. But set skills, you are not good.

I mean right now I'm wearing the Rabbit's equipment set, should I automatically could use Jumping and Enemy Searching skill already?

Oh well if I want to acquired it normally I would need to spend 4 SP but these two are obtained easily. . . hmm? Isn't it strange?

Mere 4 points you say? No, even if it just 4 points. . .

Jumping isn't understood well but I know the importance of Enemy Searching, I'm thankful for acquired it without any point consumption.

I have no intention to discard Boparu and Mizuki though, even if I got another ability to a degree which I would be able to fight alone. In combat the number is basic.

Digress

I have gotten tired indeed, so I think I'll return to a town at once.

I'm not participating in battle but I was pretty tired because I keep running to the left and to the right. I have secured rabbit meat for Ria-san in addition I collected some items and a great number of Rabbit Fur.

Imagining Ria-san surprised face and how much money will be pouring into my pockets makes my cheeks loosen. I skipping back to the town.

15 Hikime – Taku's Party Members

15 Hikime – Taku's Party Members

Suddenly I feel exhausted after read it, I hurriedly looked at the surrounding.

Several poeple quickly averted their eyes
Some poeple look at me with sparkling eyes
And a lot of poeple are look at me with glistening eyes.

For now every last of them are guilty.

[Haa. . . .] (Yu)

I wasn't worrying about it until just now, but the word 'Usa-tan' is restlessly being heard from the surrounding. What the hell is Usa-tan. . .

[I think this happened because there was no prior information about this equipment set, in addition you are walking down the street with that appearance. Well, I think this will calm down in no time because the acquisition method is simple. . .] (Ria)

[And I was just thinking of going to hunt tonight. . .] (Yu)

[Everyone would surely following you and the number will still increased becuse right now there's almost no hunting ground without players] (Ria)

But this is good!

The onlooker conversation is getting annoying.

Umm. . . a place where I can go by myself without having to worry about followers (stalkers), like the forest or mountain, maybe. But I wonder if it's better to log-out until things calmed down.

It feels like I was defeated here.

Ah I see, in the end there is only one place that I've never been before but that place is still. . .

[Osh! I saw it Yu. I saw the screenshot but it's more wonderful when I see the real thing. Is the Rabbit's set completed?] (Taku)

[Fighting power securement!!] (Yu)

[Kyuii~] [Hooo~]

[Uoo. . .? what is it?] (Taku)

I saw a familiar effeminate face talking to me from the crowd of people so I told Boparu and Mizuki to secure it. When you can't go by yourself you just need to increase the number.

I have nothing to be afraid any more!

[Captain you are too fast -ssu, owh is that Ria's friend you are talking about. . . . as I thought it's a girl -ssu]

[No, even like that he's a man you know?] (Taku)

**zawa* (astonishment)*

[A man? Aah that's kind of setting huh, roger that -ssu!]

**zawa* (consent)*

[He said a setting, are you good with that, Yu?] (Taku)

[Well whatever, I'm getting used to it] (Yu)

[Ah I see. . . you must have it hard] (Taku)

[Thank you. . .] (Yu)

Somehow he feels sorry for me, but I'm fine already.

[Fu oooooo! Taku x Yu! Gochininarimasu!!]

(TL : Can somebody tell me the meaning of Gochininarimasu?)

[Cho! Rikacchi you have nosebleed!!]

Behind Taku are a black skin man which seem frivolous wearing metallic armor with a tower shield that its height surpassed the man itself. The other one is a light-blue haired woman with a blue robe which seem emotionally unstable. They are Taku's party members, but what to say. . . hmm, what should I say. . .

[Well, they do have a unique personality, I say. . .] (Taku)

[. . . Ah sorry, maybe it's hard to believe but they are excellent water magic and shield users. Really, I wonder why they are excellent?] (Taku)

[Well. . . what to say, cheer up!] (Yu)

They say a Summoner is unpopular to be in a party with, but I preferred to be in a party with Boparu and Mizuki because they are cute, also cute. It's 100 times better than Taku's party members.

[So? What are the others?] (Yu)

[Oh the others are. . . the Beastman is a Scout and the Elf is a Archer, we also have a Healer (drug user) here. I and Rika the Healer are Human race, the Shield User is a Dwarf.] (Taku)

[Oh it seems to be balanced party] (Yu)

[Right? But the drawback is less time for everyone to play together because is hard to adjust play time when making fixed party in MMO] (Taku)

[Well in this point Summoner is preferred becuse it's basically solo] (Yu)

[Right? We went all the way to the mountain early morning to fight the area boss Golem, but in the end the party must be disbanded because 3 poeple have to leave. When I said to search for people with the detection ability, captain talked about Yu-cchi so we come here. . .]

[Don't say unnecessary things! It's as he say, so how about we go hunting together? A reward is half of the drop item] (Taku)

[No problem but I have one condition, I want go to a place where I can get away from these annoying follower] (Yu)

[Hmm. . . what is you Dash level at?] (Taku)

[ 7 ] (Yu)

[It's pretty high. Then let's avoid battle until we arrive at rest spot around the mountain top and we will hunt Goat there. Will Boparu be okay?] (Taku)

[Of course, there's no problem for Mizuki either] (Yu)

[Ki~yuii] [Hooo~]

[Oh how reliable, then I'm counting on you guys. Now you heard that? Let's marathon to the summit!] (Taku)

[Seriously -ssu] [Boo. . .]

[Today I almost couldn't level-up at all you know? Or do you prefer to endlessly hunting Rat like before?] (Taku)

[I'm going. Let's go immediately!]

[Noo, I've enough with Rats!]

[Ah, I roughly know how you feel] (Yu)

A memory of 3 hours in order to sealing Rat.

[Yu. . . what are you waiting for? Come on! Move! Move!] (Taku)

[ [Ooh!] ] [Kyuii~] [Hooo~]

[Well then Ria-san We are leaving] (Yu)

[Yeah. Have a nice day] (Ria)

[Eh wait! Seroiusly wait for me! I don't know the way! Waiiit!] (Yu)

[A wa wa wa wa wa wa. . .] (Yu)

*****

. . . I caught up easily. Agility correction seriously thanks.

« Skill : Dash skill has leveled-up »

« Skill : Dash skill has leveled-up »

[Alright, let's take a little break!] (Taku)

[ [ [Ouu! ] ] ]

About 1 hour after leaving the town we came to a mountain summit after thoroughly avoiding to battle with monster using Boparu and Mizuki Enemy Searching skill. The other player (stalker) also quickly following us.

. . . the result is, nobody caught up with us because they all got tangled with the monster that we left behind, are they alright? They should be alright. I believe they are alright.

[So? What kind of monsters appears around here?] (Yu)

[Hmm? Let's see, during the day are basically Turtles and Monkeys. At night there are Turtles and Bats, but we are looking for Goats as the main target. Normally Goats come out during the day but they have a high Area Perception ability like Rabbits in addition they are able to run on steep cliff to escape and you can die if you fall when chasing it. Because of that we will looking for Goats during the night when they are in sleep a state. They have good experience value, also the probability is low but they dropped milk that can be sold at a high price] (Taku)

[Hou. . . can I get the milk if I summoned Goat?] (Yu)

[If it's female Goat, I think it's possible. How long until you can summon the next monster?] (Taku)

[Well I still need 5 sealed monster because I just summoned Mizuki] (Yu)

[Even if you sealed Turtle, Bat, and Goat 2 monsters are still missing. Tell me next time you will summoned new monster okay?] (Taku)

[Yeah if I'm ready to summon] (Yu)

[Yosh, everyone prepare for battle, let's go!!!] (Taku)

[[ [Ouu!!] ]]

[Boparu and Mizuki I’m counting on you to search for enemy] (Yu)

[Kyuii!] [Hooo~]

Well let's see how our first battle in mountain.

[Iyaa, when Yu-uchi with us the number of battle is increased like crazy -ssu]

[The efficiency is extremely different, I rised 2 levels in these 3 hours]

[Enemy Searching ~ sama, really]

[Is that so? Since Goat and Turtle won't move until we approached it, Boparu and my hearing ability isn't effective. Goat aside, Turtle is just like mountain rock when you see it from above so Mizuki alos has hard time to find it. Because of this combat rate with Turtle is not high] (Yu)

The three of us activated Enemy Searching skill.

But it's not like we can immediately see an enemy position on the mini map within certain range. It only shows the one that we have found.

Enemy Searching skill only makes us little easier to find an enemy.

We become sensitive to sound or somehow we will know if there are someone around. You can say it's better to call it Sense Strengthening skill rather than Enemy Searching skill.

But my skill is only an effect from the Rabbit's set so what it can do is limited. I only have the same level of hearing ability to detect an enemy as Boparu. . .

[. . . no no, we continuesly fighting with hardly any time to rest you know?]

And I thought that the battle efficiency was bad because we still have time to take a rest, so it was wrong.

Also, if it wasn't for Boparu and Mizuki the battle with Turtle would be much longer.

By the way monster Turtle is really slow, seriously. Their speed is only on par with an ordinary turtle.

When they are not moving you can't distinguished it from an ordinary rock.

Boparu and my ear could barely notice its breathing sound within a radius of 1m.

And then they are hard, really hard.

Not only the shell but also the legs and head have a high physical resistance almost no weapon is effective against it. They received Taku's sword attacks as if nothing.

Magic resistant isn't as high as physical resistant.

But still, it's hard to tell whether its HP decreased or not when we attacked with magic. While the attack didn't hit our MP continued to decrease and finally after 20 minutes we could defeat a Turtle.

. . . whether 20 minutes to defeat a Turtle was long or short I will let you decide by yourself.

I want a great firepower to breakthrough a single point. . . G-Beat ! !

(TL : I don't understand what is it, maybe Senki Zesshou Symphogear reference !?)

Next is Goat, they are sleeping while hiding behind a rock or thicket, with a surprise attack it was easily defeated.

Unlike Turtle they were easy to locate by Mizuki because of their white body. There is also no problem on my side, let alone their breathing sound we also can hear them snoring so it was easy to find with Boparu and my hearing ability.

Their defensive powers not as high as the Turtle that can repel a sword attack but they have a tremendous stamina.

Their amount of HP is also quite large, it's only decreased a little when it received an attack.

When the remaining HP is low, the counter attack will become severe, what a troublesome fellow.

We all surrounded the Goat and crushed it together.

We also received counterattacks so Heal Cream was a big help in today's battles. By the way Heal Cream was popular with Taku and his party members. Well, because they are insisted to pay so I accept it, but. . .

Leveling up in the mountains was quite hard, but it was also quite meaningful for me because not only level, my sealed monsters also increased.

I think Taku's party members are good people, they kept me company until the sealing completed.

The battle with Turtle was another level.

Honestly I was saved because Boparu and Mizuki are fight together with me.

Eh? What about Bat? Because they are just charging in a group while squeaking we received it with opened arms.

[Yu seems to have finished with sealing, should we go back? I'm getting tired with the battle] (Taku)

[Indeed, as expected I'm also getting tired already because I have been logged-in since yesterday] (Yu)

[Yeah, we also have raised enough levels for today so let's stop here]

Boparu seems sleepy.

I wonder if Boparu and Mizuki also can sleep? Because they can feel tired maybe they also can sleep.

The sleeping Boparu, curled up while saying supisupi sound. . . how nice!

I want to put in a basket and enjoy it. Next time let's find a good basket in town. Or maybe I'll knit it myself, let's do so!

[Allright, then let's go back!] (Taku)

[ [ [Yesss] ] ]

[Ki~yuii] [Hooo~]

Once I go back to town I need to buy the Heal Cream that was consumed today. I completely forgot about it, I want to ask Ria-san about the Wild Dog Fur prices. There are a lot thing I want to do.

For now let's go back and sleep! I'm sleepy! I'm tired! I want to sleep with Boparu as a pillow!

. . . . I wonder if I can sleep in this world. . . .

I have to try it. If it's works then I can enjoys FWO more, right?

As if it's possible! (Irony expression)

17 Hikime – Main Shield

17 Hikime – Main Shield

[『Provocation』-ssu] (Tetsu)
[Meeeeeee~]

On the way down from the mountain, Goats and Bats were caught by our Enemy Searching skill so we took care of them while proceeded.

. . . Eh? Turtle? We don't have enough hands for such time-consuming opponent. Their shell seems to be a good material for armor though.

With his tower shield Tetsu completely stopped the momentum of a Goat that came ramming at us.

[Right now –ssu!] (Tetsu)

[Well done Tetsu! Uoooo 『Slash』] (Taku)

[~~~『Waterball』!] (Rika)

[~~~『Fireball』!] (Yu)

[Kyuii~] [Hooo~]

Taku swung his sword from behind the stunned Goat, Fireball and Waterball coming from the left and right side, Boparu slipped under the Goat and raised a kick, Mizuki also launched an attack from above.
Multiple attacks were raining down on the Goats body.

[Gu, meeeeeeee. . .!!]

The Goat raised a death cry after received a critical hit from our best attack and fell down with a thud sound.

Our teamwork seems to considerably increased, we can defeated a Goat without letting its HP falls below a half first. Goat will enter to Berserk-mode when its HP is less than half.

Because of this Goat was hard to deal with.

Their attack power will be increased, their movement will become wild, and they will launch an attack indiscriminately. They also have a habit of running away with full force when their HP is really in a pinch.

I was struck dumb when I saw a Goat escape for the first time. With hyoihyoi it climbing from a tree branch to another as if flying.

From Taku's story I was convinced that Goat would not easily get caught because of this escape-mode movement. Therefore we need to launched a suprise attack while they are sleeping to solve this problem.

*****

[Thanks for the good work] (Yu)
[Kyuii~] [Hooo~]

After the battle ended we take a little break before continue to move. While feeling Boparu and Mizuki I checked the distance between town and our current location on the map, we already passed halfway through.

At this rate we will continue to fight for around 1 hour until reached the town, I think?

As we descended, the encounter rate with monsters was considerably decreased but once we getting closer to the town Rats will come out, this much won't be a problem.

. . . But still Muzuki feather was very softy and fluffy, my hand sunk while feeling it. It has different pleasure and fluffy feeling like when I stroked Boparu fur.

[Kyuii~] [Hooo~]

Boparu and Mizuki squinting pleasantly when I stroke both of them with my right hand alternately.

What is this? Am I in heaven?

[Ugh, nothing dropped. . .] (Rika)

[Again? Don't give up!] (Taku)

[Ee!? It's not my fault -ssu! It's just the matter of luck -ssu!] (Tetsu)

[Yu-chan isn't holding back the drop items anymore, are your luck just extremely bad? It's must be because of your everyday bad conduct] (Rika)

[That's mean, hey Rika-cchi if you think like that then how about you are doing the stripping instead] (Tetsu)

[No thanks, that's troublesome. Aren't those chores the junior's works?] (Rika)

[Senpai -ssu! Between me and Rika which one joined the party first?] (Tetsu)

[It's doesn't matter which one joined first. Being senior it doesn't mean to become superior, we are now in the same party fighting together while watching each other's backs, right? Don't be narrow minded] (Taku)

[Those were good words unless for the person who's shoved the work to others because she think it's troublesome. Captain, about the talk earlier what do you think?] (Tetsu)

[. . . The culprit was Tetsu!] (Taku)

[Captain? Did you properly hear what I said?] (Tetsu)

[Ah sorry sorry. . . the culprit was Tetsu] (Taku)

[That's the same things!! Nobody's on my side! Does captain also think it was my fault. . .] (Tetsu)

[I'm just kidding. Is there any reason for me to say something terrible to you?] (Taku)

[That's right, it was thanks to you that we had a fun-time together] (Rika)

[Captain. . . Rika-cchi. . .] (Tetsu)

[ [ Also, there is no way we can bullying such weak-creature ] ] (Taku / Rika)

[Nooo wayyy. . . .!] (Tetsu)

Tetsu dropped down on all four because he was betrayed by his companion.

. . . I was wondering what was unfolding in front of my eyes? Was it play? Was it okay to applaud now?

Tetsu remain motionlessly in orz position while Taku and Rika resuming their chat.

I couldn't bear to watch, somebody please do something about it! I missed my chance to escape and somehow Tetsu is now fleeing glance to me since earlier as asking for help. I don't want to get involved since it was troublesome but those two don't seem to intend to do anything.

[. . . bu~ but, you have an important role in the party as a shield user . . . I mean. . . somehow there is some sense of security while fighting with you. . .] (Yu)

It was my honest thought. Our party is still weak and it's good thing there are someone that specialized in defense. With his large shield Tetsu keeps enemies under tabs while we are launching attacks, because of this, injury rate in our party decreased. That sense of security is quite a thing.

It seems stress is accumulated because of his work.

[That's right! I have an important role! There is also other good thing about me!]
(Tetsu)

[You are recovered too fast!] (Yu)

Like a spring-loaded toy Tetsu's jumping while declare it in high spirit. Annoying. Really annoying. Taku is annoying but Tetsu also annoying on a different level. Aah I want to go back to my healing spot between Boparu and Mizuki at once.

[Hmm. . . well he certainly really helps us, thanks to 'meat shield' I can concentrate on attacking the enemy] (Taku)

[That's right, we can't ignore the 'meat wall' aspect on our safety] (Rika)

[These two. . . is it just my imagination or are they just saying something terrible about me?] (Tetsu)

[ [ it's just your imagination ] ] (Taku / Rika)

Despite everything I'm really feeling grateful to him. Well, Tetsu also seems to having fun being in this party.

. . . I'm little envious with them, I think.

There is nothing to be dissatisfied about Boparu and Mizuki, in the near future there will also be another monster join to our party one after another. But still, monster can't speak. They seems to understand what I'm saying though, also somehow I can understand their feeling.

Nevertheless we can't quarrel, joking around, or laughing like Taku and other.

[Kiyui?] [Hoo?]

Boparu and Mizuki come to peek because they worried about me when I suddenly fell silent. The figure of these two cutely tilted their head side by side make me smile unintentionally.

[It's alright. Thank you for worrying me] (Yu)

[Ki~yuii] [Ho~ooo]

While crouching I pat Boparu and Mizuki that come asking while rubbing their head, both of them squeal happily.

It's not like a Summoner can't make a party with other players, there is no such rule. Actually right now I'm in party with Taku and the others.

So the feeling of envy, jealousy, and loneliness that I felt are irrelevant. It's just that I want to hear Boparu and Mizuki speak a word to me, is that too much?

[Master, hold me~!]

[Master, pat me~!]

[Ehehe~ master praise me! Praise me!]

. . . something like that.

If it really happens, I'm sure I would holed-up in the city all day to play with them without leaving for adventure.

Ah but if they say something like [Master, I hate you~] I'm sure would holed-up in my room and won't be able to log-in to FWO anymore.

[. . . I think is better for them to remain like this forever?] (Yu)

[Kyuii?] [Hoo?]

Boparu and Mizuki looking at me while I patting their head, oh dear how cutee!

*****

(TL : Author's note)

Is there any meaning for jobs if we can acquired any skill with SP?
Maybe you have been thinking about this question before, so I will explained it here!

For example Summoning Magic and Trade skill or some other higher skill are basically professional skills of each job in the system. So except of those you can acquired any sub-skill from your job or other job.

But there is also a demerit of course.

For example we want to acquired Fire Magic skill.
Mage need to consume 2 SP to acquired it
Fighter need to consume 5 SP to acquired it
And Summoner will need to consume 3 SP to acquired it.

And it also influences the effect of the skill.
We assume that 『Slash』of a sword skill was used.

When the fighter used slash it's will have 100 offensive power.
For Mage and Crafter will have 50 offensive power
For Summoner is about 30 offensive power.

The magic efficiency for mage is 80% compared to other jobs.
By the way, this also influences a passive skill, so when other jobs that have the same level and status with Summoner fight each other, Summoner will certainly lose. Of course we don't included Summoning Magic skill here.

Because of this, it's said that Summoner is an inefficient job. In the matter of magic efficiency Summoner also lose to Mage which in the same Magic User profession. Well summoning magic is too strong enough to make-up for all if this. . .

18 Hikime – Atelier Visit

18 Hikime - Atelier Visit

[Starting town! I came back!] (Taku)

[Taku Shut up!] (Yu)

And finally we arrived at the Starting Town.

As per Taku and the others advice I reluctantly un-summoned Boaparu and Mizuki. I also unequipped the Rabbit's set and went back to wearing my initial equipment as not to attract attention. We advanced towards the fountain in the center of the plaza on foot.

[Well then we are going to log-out now, how about you Yu?] (Taku)

[Hmm. . . I wonder what should I do?] (Yu)

I checked the time on menu, right now is 8.00 pm in the real world, is about time for dinner. Today's dinner is self-service curry as usual, I just need to heat it up in microwave and wash the dish afterwards therefore I can take dinner anytime but . . . I have been logged-in all day long since this morning and haven't gone to the toilet or eaten anything, so I'm hungry right now. . .

By the way there was an item called 'Tent' with this we can log out temporary if we want to go to the toilet. I need to buy it later from Ria-san.

[I'm hungry so I will log-out as well] (Yu)

[Okay, because we won't log-in again today, so this is farewell] (Taku)

[See you later Yu-chan] (Rika)

[See you -ssu!] (Tetsu)

[. . . Tetsu, your greeting are incomprehensible. And stop adding ‘-ssu’ in the words. More importantly I don’t understand what is ‘-ssu’ means] (Rika)

[ ‘-ssu’ is part of my indentitty, are you denying it !?] (Tetsu)

Bla. .bla. .bla. . . they are noisy until the end.

I woke up in the dark room and nobody was there, It feels slightly lonely. I want to hurry to eat dinner, take a bath, and go back to FWO.

Also tomorrow is a day off and I think there wouldn’t be a problem even if I play alone.

*****

I logged-in at 9.00 pm.

The day and night is switched at 00.00 am.

Let’s summon Boparu and Mizuki immediately. . .

That’s what I want to do, but it will be pointless even though I went as far as not equipped the Rabbit's set. So even if it’s hard I have to bear with it.

[Well then, what should I do. . .?] (Yu)

With my level there wouldn’t be any problem even if I go to the mountains. Enemies in the mountains and forest seems to be weak for us right now, but it's painful that there is no heal cream in my hand. It’s so reckless to challenge an unknown enemy without any recovery means.

So, I need to buy Heal Cream before doing anything else. But the payment for rabbit meat and fur is still tomorrow.

Now what to do. . .

Ria-san in on my friendlist, for the time being let's show my face to her.

*****

[Here, this is payment for Turtle, Bat, and Goat drop items. You have to wait a little longer for Rabbit meat and fur payment] (Rika)

[Thank you] (Yu)

Somehow funds were secured. I just realize it when I saw Ria-san's stall that I can just sell today's dropped items separately from Rabbit meat and fur.

There are two kinds of items that I sold, Goat milk and Bat fang.

I have a lot Bat fang but the price is low, on contrary Goat milk sold for a high price but I only have two of them. Also there was no dropped item from Turtle because their number was only enough for sealing completion therefore we couldn't get anything.

I have graduated as person that only can buy 2 apples but I do not know whether my money is enough to buy Heal Cream. Well if it comes to it, I planned to come back again after received my payment.

[You sure have it tough huh. Even after went all the trouble to collect the Rabbit's set you can't use it freely, but I think it's just temporary] (Ria)

[Hmm, I don't really mind it . . . but it's really painful to be separated from Boparu and Mizuki . . . I think somehow I can hear their voice calling to me from somewhere] (Yu)

[. . . aren't you a student? Will you be okay going to school next Monday in such a condition?] (Ria)

[. . . . . I will manage it somehow] (Yu)

[well I'm just worried. . .] (Ria)

[Let's see, summer vacation will be started on Friday after that I can play the game even on weekdays. You are worried too much] (Yu)

[I hope so. . .] (Ria)

I exchanged information with Ria-san that still doubted me. . . no, I am the only one who received information here. The Tent prices will be deducted from Rabbit payment. Ria-san also taught me information about inn locations so I can summons and take a rest with Boparu and Mizuki. Though it's disappointing that there is no such information about a Basket item.

. . . It's became a one-sided information exchange. Not good, but there isn't any information I can offer in particular.

Finally I managed to leave, I want to meet Boparu and Mizuki soon. I noticed Ria-san still looking at me worriedly but I think she is exaggerating it too much. Transaction was properly done and it's not like I'm thinking about Boparu all the time.

*****

[So it's here] (Yu)

It was one of building that was located in the Starting towns west street, I looked up at the sign that was hanging in front of the shop.

A picture of the large flask is drawn on it. Once again I checked the map and there is no doubt that this is the right place.

It would be a bother for her to visit in the middle of the night, that's what I thought. But as far as Taku and the others reaction, Heal Cream seems to be quite an excellent recovery item.

Also, it seem Potion is always in shortage supply because players are constantly bought it up. It might be cheaper if you can buy it directly from the producer, but it comes with penalty or tax.

. . . By the way, I have come to this place because I know that it's Ell's alchemy atelier from her. But I think other people wouldn't know about what kind of this place because nothing has been written here. . .

Maybe something like. . .

"Ellnes Atelier The FWO Alchemist"

With that I think people would know about what kind of place this is.

How's that? Ah not good

**kon kon kon**

[excuse mee~] (Yu)

I knocked on the door because there was no chime to be seen. I often make a mistake, 2 knocks is for checking a toilet. I knew this superficial knowledge from Taku. With haughty and annoying face he told me this so I hit him, I remember it clearly.

Still no answer. Is she not home or sleeping? Hmm? But the light is on, did she not heard me?

**kon kon kon**

[excuse mee~] (Yu)

. . . I know this is out of nowhere but foxes are sure cute.

I've never see the real one though, I wonder what they look like? Live in the forest or snowfield that's what come to my mind. And then. . . live in volcano and have some thing like a fire attribute? No, that's indeed impossible, something like that will be another problem itself.

(TL : Yep it's random, did he just remember about Pokemon Go !? lol)

.....

Still no answer.

I think there are poeple in because the light is still on. Maybe her hand is tied-up with compounding? Or maybe she is in the bath.

Anyway I need it today, maybe I will just buy Potion at Ria-san place, the effect seems to be lower though also it's expensive.

[. . . . . Who are you?]

A thin voice which to the extent you will miss to hear it, was thrown from the other side of the door.

It was the opposite of Ell's cheerful voice. The answer which can only be considered as surprised mixed with whisper as if something clogged in her throat.

[. . . Ah my name is Yu, this place is Ell-san alchemy atelier right?] (Yu)

[. . . Yes this place is Ellnes Nee-san atelier. Umm. . . may I help you?]

[Ah yeah, I have thought of whether I can get some Heal Cream here. Is Ell-san not home?] (Yu)

I don't know why, but I can feel an unfriendly attitude from her tone. But when she introduced herself as Ell's little sister it's somehow gave me a childish impression.

The tensions that has been stretched involuntarily crumble along with her that stopped using formal language. As expected using honorific and polite language is tiring. Just hearing it makes me nervous.

. . . Huh? Was I using polite language when talk with Ria-san? I somehow used it as if natural, I wonder why? Though it seem Ria-san doesn't mind it.

[. . . Delivery request of heel cream. . . Onee-san is not home. I think it still took a while before she returning, do you have appointment with Onee-san?]

[No, I don't. . . ] (Yu)

[You don't have any appointment before, and yet you are knocking on the door of lady house in the middle of night]

[Umm well. . . because your sister told me before that "you can come to play anytime"] (Yu)

[. . . . .]

No answer. Did I just say something wrong?

At any rate it's bad to suddenly visited ladies house in the middle of the night . . .

Well it seems she's not home, let's come back later

[She is not here right now. . .]

**Gyiii**

Before I can answer, the door that separated the girls and me opened while make some noise.

[. . . Uuh?] (Yu)

From the other side of opened door, only a little silhouette can be seen because I was dazzled by the light that came from inside the room.

[Even though you are a rude customer that suddenly came in the middle of the night but because you are Onee-san acquaintance I can't just send you away]

The room is so bright, that said it's not like there was sunlight inside. My eyes began to be accustomed with the light and immediately captured the appearance of a girl. The azure pupil and the long hair that has the same color tied with one-sided ponytail style. As the opposite of Ell's flashy clothes she wore a simple black one-piece type clothing.

The girl that focused her attention on me grasped both ends of the skirt quietly, lifted it a little, bent her knees lightly and lowered her head in a slight curtsy.

[. . . Welcome to Ell and Fia atelier] (Fia)

The girl with white skin that like porcelain greeted me with an unchanging expression just like a doll, or so I thought.

19 Hikime – Fia-Chan

19 Hikime – Fia-Chan

[. . . Welcome to Ell and Fia Atelier] (Fia)

The girl greeted me while grasping both ends of the skirt quietly, lifted it a little, bending her knees lightly and lowering her head.

. . . . . in 5m distance.

Too far!

I was still standing in front of the entrance, is there any need to put so much distance Fia-chan? She dashed back after opened the door for me a little while ago. . . WHY?

[Ouu. As I said before my name is Yu and I'm Ell's acquaintance. Well, Fia-cha---]
(Yu)

[Please don't come closer!!] (Fia)

[Eeh !?] (Yu)

I thought she opened the door because she wanted to let me in, I never thought she was shooing me away. Eeh what is this? What did she opened the door for?

[Over there!] (Fia)

This time I was allowed to enter and then she just left me. . .

Umm, I'm not allowed to sit?

She allowed me to enter but then she left me. . . what does she want to do exactly. . .?

I don't understand! Women's hearts are so complicated, I can't understand it at all!

For now let's review the situation. After I came in Fia-chan advances towards the back room cautiously.

I checked the room from the corner of hallway, indeed it's seemed to be an atelier. The large pot, such as the one for making lunch in school? A jar? Green liquid inside the flask filled half of the wall. Test tube containing purple liquid. There are also other indescribable things lined up. On the other side there are line of bookshelves, table and chair for 4 people was put in the center. And there Fia-chan was standing.

(TL : I was thinking of round pot-like that witch usually use in movie, but it says something like school cafeteria's pot)

The Atelier is located in the front room from the entrance, I wonder if this also served as a parlor?

Although the Atelier and parlor were connected, I think it can't be helped. From the outside I can see that the space of workshop is almost filled with no room to spare.

Surely it won't be a reason like---

[To save time because I can receive visitors while compounding -desu]

---That's impossible.

[. . . please sit down there!] (Fia)

[Ah, yes. . .] (Yu)

After Fia-chan pointing a chair for me, she fled to the back room again. . . she ran away like a scared rabbit.

. . . from her reaction so far, it's clear that she hate me, also---

She said it herself when opened the door---

[Even though you are a rude customer that suddenly come in the middle of the night but because you are Onee-san acquaintance I can't just send you away]

---That was her true feeling, she only reluctantly let me in because I said to be her sister acquaintance.

Surely she only think of me as a 'Nuisance'.

. . . No, rather than say 'Only think', she shows it clearly from her attitude.

[Did I do something worth to be hated. . .] (Yu)

There is still an inconvenient feeling even though it's not real, and I wonder why she doesn't want get close to me?

A (cute) girl was being cautious with me at the first meeting, because it's emotially exhausted I want her at least lower her guard a little, what should I do.

. . . . .

. . . . . . .

[. . . It's so quiet] (Yu)

Fia-chan didn't come back. . .

What is this, abandon-play?

Her words from a little while ago, [. . . (until my sister comes back) please sit down there!] is that what she meant?

If that's right, doesn't it mean I will be sitting here and keep waiting for a person that who know when she will come back. . .

Impossible, that's impossible. I can't just sit here doing nothing for who know how long it will be, if only there was my smartphone! Or get me a novel at least!

. . . Uhh I want to just leave from here.

But she told me to wait here, I don't want to give her more reason to hate me. . .

I want to see Boparu and Mizuki. . . Hmm? That's a good idea right?

I'll be happy if I can touch Boparu and Mizuki. Fia-chan also wouldn't hate Boparu and Mizuki because they have no sin. Or rather she might be will envious to seeing me being lovey-dovey with Boparu and Mizuki! And if Fia-chan wants to touch Boparu and Mizuki it's inevitable that our (physical) distance also will get closer!

[It's trully a perfect plan!!] (Yu)

[. . . Sorry, to make you wait] (Fia)

[Ah, no. I'm not waiting at all, it's alright] (Yu)

**startle** I pull a chair and sit down again. Did she hear? She must heard. . .

Uooooooooo, it's super embarrassing!!

Or rather, Fia-chan absolutely eavesdrop me! The timing is too perfect!

[. . . ?] (Yu)

While sending a cold gaze (Yu perspective) to me that still writhes in shame, Fia-chan moved to the other side of table staggered. And then with rumble sound she put something on the table.

[. . . it's was all Heal Cream from warehouse, is this enough?] (Fia)

There are around 20 Heal Cream lying on table, this is completely sufficient but the problem is---

[I want as much as I can buy, but right now I only have a little money] (Yu)

[. . . How much do you have?] (Fia)

I tell Fia-chan the gold in my possession and she began to choosing a Heal Cream. It seems there are subtle variations in the effect for each one. She considering which I'll need for the price.

. . . I thought she hated me, or I am wrong? Or this is just her professionalism? Anyway I don't care what the reason is, as long it's a good thing.

[. . . Alright, it's decided. This one and then--] (Fia)

**baaan!**

[I Am Home -desu !!] (Ell)

[--This. . .] (Fia)

[Fiaaaa! Where are youuu! Onee-chan has come back -desu yo~~~!] (Ell)

With Zuzazazaza sound, Ell which jumped into the workshop while drifting and scraping the ground with her right foot, look at Fia-chan.

[I want to see you -desu yo~~~!!] (Ell)

[. . . Be quite please] (Fia)

Ell rushed to Fia-chan with full force and doing a large jump to pounced her. . .

No, it just a jumping hug!?

Hmmm. . . hmmm. . . aah Lu*pin Dive!! (TL : Lupin The Third reference)

Within the air Ell spread her arm while doing a nose-dive towards Fia-chan. She casually avoided a direct hit with only doing a half a step to the side and then raised her right hand. No, rather than raised, she was readied her right hand, and then---

[*Gupye~*] (Ell)

Without moving from her position Fia-chan did a half rotation to stop Ell's momentum with her right hand. Ell fell on her back and hen slipped on the ground until she stopped after hitting the wall.

[ . . . ]

[ . . . ]

[ . . . ]

[. . . also this one too, it's 5 in total] (Fia)

[Eh!? No reaction!? after all the spectacle that just happened, you just casually continue to talk as if nothing!!] (Yu)

I wonder why since the first time in FWO, I always play a straight-man. . .

Be it with Taku or others, I cant help but to retort if there is something amiss. . . how did this happen.

20 Hikime – Man-Hater

20 Hikime – Man Hater

[I'm ashamed -desu] (Ellnes)

[Really, please behave yourself Nee-san] (Fia)

[This is also Fia's fault for being too cute -desu! When there is something cute right in front of me, I just can't hold it -desu!] (Ellnes)

[Then put this chain on to hold you. . . or you would like Fia to put it on you. . .?]
(Fia)

[ [ No, thanks (-desu) ] ] (Yu / Ell)

It's appeared out of nowhere, but please put down the chain. . . or rather Fia-chan, is that still something inside capacity of the system?

[Haah. . . whatever. . . well, Yu-san these five Heal Creams are my recommendation] (Fia)

[Oh yeah, honestly I didn't know the difference so I will leave it to you] (Yu)

biku!!

When I reached out to take the Heal Cream, Fia-chan retracted her hands at once. Eh? Didn't you want to give me that? . . . is not like I will bite you or anything though.

[Oh my? How unusual -desu, for Fia-chan to avoided a girl. Did the Man Hater also start hating girls? It means there will be only the two of us, always together forever! you should tell me that sooner -desu yo!] (Ell)

Ughh, even NPC treat me as a girl. . . though I have a man's voice but why does everybody still mistake me as a girl. Is it because of my appearance? Tsubasa told me that my appearance is a scam and I should apologize to all women in the world, it's doesn't make any sense.

90% of people only look at my appearance so I heard it from time to time. . . even though what on the inside is a gentleman, it's unreasonable.

[That's not it. . . in the first place, it's not like I hate men. I just can't tell what they are thinking so it's scary. Besides. . .

Yu-san is a man?] (Fia)

grasp!

[Kyaaaaaaaaaaaaa !! ? ? ] (Fia)

[Opss ! ?] (Yu)

Aah! Crap! Unintentionally I grabbed Fia-chan hand, I was happy because she can tell that I'm a man in the first meeting. Well, I didn't really care about it though, but I guess it's still on my mind? I take Fia-chan hand with the speed of light. Ha ha ha. . .

. . . This is bad. What should I do. Fia-chan was only showing an unpleasant face when Ell jumped to her, but right now she was staring at me with tear-filled eyes and bright red face. Oh cuteee. . . .

That's not it!

I wonder why but I can't released her hand, also my body couldn't move at all.

Does it lag? The service just started so it's possible. It can't be helped if there is a bug. Hahahahahaha. . .

[ . . . . . ] (Fia)

[Ah? Umm? Sorry, maybe?] (Yu)

[Get out of hereeeeeee!!!] (Fia)

gacha! poi! dosa! bang!

. . . I have been kicked out from the house. Well, it's my fault so I have no right to complaint. . . do I?

gacha! poi! dosa! bang!

. . . Even though she is angry and kicked me out, she still dutifully deliver the Heal Cream, Fia-chan seriously an angel. Also the last glare was. . .

(TL : A new door has opened ?? :D)

Even so, regardless of her appearance she got a power. Just look at how she grabbed my neck, dragged me to the door, and with a boom she threw me to the other side with easy. This thought never occurred to me. Speaking of which, when you rely on the status, Ell's physical endurance also something that you can't make light off.

However considering the appearance and status strenght, it doesn't mean when your status strenght went up you will also gaining more muscle. "Don't judge a person by their appearance" it's a common thing in FWO. Let's bear it in my mind.

*****

Well then, I have acquired the Heal Cream but it takes longer than I expected. It's about to sunrise now, the night monsters are gradually reduced. I have to go early to the forest while the number is still few if I want to seal a new monster.

Crow, Caterpillar, and Wild Dog are monsters that come out in the forest during the day. Owl comes out during the night, only one monster? I can't wait to summons the next monster, what should I choose?

I'm skipping in a good mood to leave the town. . . after passed the gate, I summons Boparu and Mizuki also equipped Rabbit Set. . . and then immediately run away from the stalker groups.

What the heck! Why are they gathered outside the gate? Uwaaaahh!? From the front! From the left! From the right! What to do!? The grassland was full of stalker groups!? Don't tell me they were waiting all night long in order to catch me!? How foolish! I don't want to get caught!!

Uoo ooo ooo! let's do it! we will run away at any costs! Go Boparu! Mizuki! Don't let them caught us! Ruuuuuuuuun !!

*****

The result was we escaped successfully.

After the sun rises, they suddenly stopped chasing us. I was looking at the surrounding restlessly.

[Haa. . . haa. . . what on earth is that. . .?] (Yu)

[kyuui ♪ kyuui ♪] [Hoo~!]

I was running until the west sky turn bright. I don't understand what they are thinking.

. . . if anything, I can't deny they are completly obsessed. . .

Also, Boparu and Mizuki seems to assume it as a game of tag. With high spirit the two still circling aroound me right now. The figure of these two which frolic joyfully, I never get tired of watching! There is no time for that! Let's running again guys!

[kyuui ] [hoo ]

We run to the forest without losing our speed.

*****

[Hoo~]

By the way this is Mizuki cries

[ [ [ Hoo~ ] ] ]

This one is the other Owl cries

[Daa - - - - I have finished seal you guys! Other monsters please!] (Yu)

I can take you all by myself with my current level, so there is no reason to lose with 3 on 3 battle. Let's finished this swiftly so we can take a rest.

[Only the Owl came attacking us. . . When I came here before I also fought with Owl, don't tell me this is the only monster that comes out in forest during the night. . .?] (Yu)

[kyuii~?] [hoo~?]

[Well, with our skill I'm expecting to find other monsters - - -] (Yu)

[. . . . . Meoww ~]

[- - - A Cat !?] (Yu)

[kyuii~?] [hoo~?]

I who suddenly screamed in the middle of talking, make Boparu and Mizuki astonished. It just can't be helped, my enhanced hearing had certainly caught the cries.

Dog come out during noon and Cat come out during night, it's make sense, indeed. It's mean there are other monsters in the forest besides Owl during the night.

[Boparu, Mizuki. . . Cat hunting!!] (Yu)

[kyuii~!!] [hoo~!!]

These two doing a mimicry of a salute, Boparu is using her forefoot and Mizuki is using her wing. We respectively activated Enemy Searching skill and went in separate directions. Since the risk is different with Rabbit hunting, we will call each other if we find the Cat.

Was your neck. . . no, because it's a Cat, wash your face and wait! We will come to get you!!

Oh, I'd like to see you after you washed your face, so please did it before we arrived.

(TL : Don't ask me what is has a thing to do with 'wash the face' :D because I didn't understand either)
